

University of HUDDERSFIELD

University of Huddersfield Repository

Skea, Derek

Caring, Quality of Life and Service Provision: a new perspective

Original Citation

Skea, Derek (2010) Caring, Quality of Life and Service Provision: a new perspective. In: International Conference on Interdisciplinary Social Sciences, 2-5 August 2010, University of Cambridge, Cambridge. (Unpublished)

This version is available at <http://eprints.hud.ac.uk/id/eprint/8870/>

The University Repository is a digital collection of the research output of the University, available on Open Access. Copyright and Moral Rights for the items on this site are retained by the individual author and/or other copyright owners. Users may access full items free of charge; copies of full text items generally can be reproduced, displayed or performed and given to third parties in any format or medium for personal research or study, educational or not-for-profit purposes without prior permission or charge, provided:

- The authors, title and full bibliographic details is credited in any copy;
- A hyperlink and/or URL is included for the original metadata page; and
- The content is not changed in any way.

For more information, including our policy and submission procedure, please contact the Repository Team at: E.mailbox@hud.ac.uk.

<http://eprints.hud.ac.uk/>

Sessions: Monday, 02 August

8:00-9:00	REGISTRATION DESK OPENS
9:00-9:45	CONFERENCE OPENING - Bill Cope , Common Ground Publishing, USA
9:45-10:20	PLENARY SESSION - Jack Goody , University of Cambridge, Cambridge, UK
10:20-10:55	PLENARY SESSION - Mary Kalantzis , University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, USA
10:55-11:10	COFFEE BREAK
11:10-11:55	TALKING CIRCLES (STREAMS LISTED BELOW)
Room 1	Streams: Sociology and Geography
Room 2	Streams: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 3	Streams: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 4	Streams: Economics and Management
Room 5	Streams: Media and Communications
Room 6	Streams: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 7	Streams: Education and Social Welfare
Room 8	Streams: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences
Room 9	Streams: Technology and Applied Sciences
Room 10	Streams: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 11	Streams: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender
12:00-13:05	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	12:00-12:30	12:35-13:05
Room 1	Positive Experiences of Siblings of Persons with Major Mental Illness: Their Self Development and Support Dr. Kimiko Tanaka, Department of Social Work, Kutztown University of Pennsylvania, Kutztown, USA Overview: A cross-national (U.S. and Japanese) sample of 130 siblings of persons with major mental illness was analyzed to explore the relationship between their positive experiences, and social support. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Community-Based Participatory Research: Highlighting an Emerging Research Methodology Dr. Karen Slovak, Social Work, Ohio University Zanesville, Zanesville, USA Overview: This presentation will highlight Community-Based Participatory Research, which is an emerging research methodology involving mutual ownership of the research process between the academic and community of study. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 2	Environmental Education: Interdisciplinarity in Action Emily McMillan, Human Studies, Laurentian University, Sudbury, Canada Overview: Effective and meaningful education about environmental issues requires an interdisciplinary framework that will contribute to a feeling of connection to nature. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Voices of American Poverty Prof. Alfred Joseph, Department of Family Studies and Social Work, Miami University, Oxford, Prof. Anne Broussard, Department of Social Work College of Health and Human Services, University of New Hampshire, Durham, USA Overview: This project seeks to gain a more in-depth understanding of the poor by going straight to the people who experience poverty and listening to them. Stream: Education and Social Welfare

MON.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	12:00-12:30	12:35-13:05
Room 3	Interdisciplinary Approach to Developing Animation Learning Program for Eco-friendly Environmental Mind Dr. Kew-Cheol Shim, Department of Biology Education, Kongju National University, Gongju, Dr. Keum-Hyun So, Busan National University of Education, Busan, Dr. Sung-Hee Yeau, Department of Science Education, Ewha Womans University, Seoul, South Korea Overview: The paper reports a study designed to develop animation learning programs to increase an eco-friendly environmental mind for primary and secondary school students. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Living within Our Means: Contemplating a Sustainable Urban Water Budget Dr. Suzanne Dallman, Department of Geography, California State University, Long Beach, Long Beach, USA Overview: This research examines what the water supply might be for Southern California if local sources are maximized and imported water (currently 60% of supply) is eliminated. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences
Room 4	Quantifying Culture: New Ways of Measuring Media Content as a Social Mapping Technique Dr. Kerric Harvey, School of Media and Public Affairs, The George Washington University, Washington, USA Overview: Builds on Edward T. Hall's work in proxemics to suggest a combined quantitative/qualitative analysis of media myth and archetype to explore cultural attitudes about time, space, and social identity. Stream: Media and Communications	Overcoming Interdisciplinary Boundaries within a University Core Curriculum: Economics and History Dr. William Abbott, Department of History, Dr. Kathryn Nantz, Department of Economics, Fairfield University, Fairfield, USA Overview: This presentation demonstrates how two instructors utilize a two-course cluster format and a single team-taught format to help students draw connections between Economics and History. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 5	Reconstituting Local Governance: Policy Networks and Local Government reform in Thailand Thunradee Taveekan, Assoc Prof Paul Battersby, School of Global Studies, Social Science and Planning, RMIT University, Melbourne, Australia Overview: Could policy networks contribute to the local government reform? Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Brain Abnormalities in the Criminal Justice System: Uniting Public Policy and Scientific Knowledge David Admire, Alissa Mitchell, Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice, Southern Utah University, Cedar City, USA Overview: Scientific knowledge of neurological brain dysfunction and abnormalities has been disregarded or not understood by public policy makers resulting in unnecessary imprisonment for offenders and wasted tax dollars. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 6	The Impact of Citizenship Benefits on the National Identity of Diasporic Communities: The Case of Palestinians and Armenians in Lebanon Senay Yegin, Institute of Social Sciences International Relations Department, Koc University, Istanbul, Turkey Overview: This paper focuses on the impact of citizenship benefits on the national identity perception of the Palestinians and Armenians in Lebanon. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Sociology of Religion and Christian Replacement Theology: From Judaism as an Ethnic Religion to Christianity as a Universal Religion Dr. Renan Springer de Freitas, Department of Sociology and Antropology, Federal University of Minas Gerais, Belo Horizonte, Brazil Overview: This papers takes issue with the distinction between ethnic religion and universal religion as it has used by sociologists of religion when they compare Judaism and Christianity. Stream: Sociology and Geography

MON.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	12:00-12:30	12:35-13:05
Room 7	Gender Differences in Environmental Worldview among Secondary School Students in South Korea Dr. Kew-Cheol Shim, Department of Biology Education, Kongju National University, Gongju, Dr. Ji-Hyon Kil, Nature and Ecology Research Department, National Institute of Environmental Research, Incheon, Dr. Jung-Min Kim, Gongju Life Science High School, Gongju, Dr. Keum-Hyun So, Busan National University of Education, Busan, Dr. Sung-Hee Yeau, Department of Science Education, Ewha Womans University, Seoul, South Korea Overview: The purpose of this study was examining the gender differences in environmental worldviews of secondary school students in South Korea. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender	The Financial Feasibility of a Private Sector Montessori Education Project: A Case Study Dr. Michael Farrell, Departemente des sciences de la gestion, Universite du Quebec, Trois Rivieres, Canada Overview: Review of the demand and supply of private education services; financial analysis of an operating Montessori School Stream: Economics and Management
Room 8	Is the Death Penalty in America Racist? Dr. David Gilboa, Department of Religious Studies and Philosophy, Silver Lake College, Manitowoc, USA Overview: In this paper, I report the results of my examination of three allegations of racial discrimination in murder trials in the U.S. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 9	Small Area Estimation for the Dutch Victimization Measurement Virginie Blaess, Department of Methodology and Quality, Statistics Netherlands, Heerlen, Netherlands Overview: This study presents the results of model-based small area estimation methods for the National Safety Monitor. This survey is conducted annually in the Netherlands Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Writing the History of the Landless Workers Movement of Brazil: Empowerment, Recognition and Agency Sônia Fátima Schwendler, University of London, Canterbury, UK Overview: This paper analyzes the use of oral history in the context of land struggle carried out by social movements, notably the Landless Workers Movement of Brazil. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 10	Cultural Syndromes and within Group Differences: Parent-Child Relations Dr. Uma Krishnan, Department of Family and Consumer Sciences College of Agricultural, Consumer and Environmental Sciences, New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, USA Overview: This study examined the within group differences in the experience and outcome of parent-child conflict. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 11	Role of CRM in Banking Industry: An Exploratory Study on Challenges and Opportunities Dr. Ravindra P. Saxena, Faculty of Business and Management, University of Wollongong in Dubai, Dubai, United Arab Emirates Overview: Today banks are changing their way of doing business; they are shifting from a transactional based marketing approach to a relationship based approach. Stream: Economics and Management	Re-Thinking the Accounting Concept "Asset": Some Insights from New Zealand Maori Culture Prof. Russell Craig, Department of Accounting and Information Systems, Prof. Rawiri Taonui, Department of Maori and Indigenous Studies, Susan Wild, Accounting and Information Systems (ACIS), University of Canterbury, Christchurch, New Zealand Overview: This paper explores the Maori concepts of 'asset' and 'wealth' as alternatives to the mainstream notion of asset informing conventional accounting theory and practice. Stream: Economics and Management

MON.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	12:00-12:30		12:35-13:05
Room 12	Addressing Complex Needs: User-Centric Design to Enhance Wellbeing Assoc. Prof. Janet Judy McIntyre-Mills, Social Sciences, Dr Denise B. A. de Vries, School of Computer Science, Engineering and Mathematics, Flinders University, Adelaide, Australia Overview: The research addresses intractable wellbeing challenges spanning health, housing and social inclusion needs. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Public Policies on Higher Education: Rhetoric and Grammar of Modernity and the Limits of Social Recognition Prof. César Correa Arias, Department of Sociology, University of Guadalajara, Guadalajara, Mexico Overview: This paper is based on a research developed at the University of Guadalajara (Mexico, 2006-2009), regarding the impact of public policies on higher education in the institutional recognition among scholars. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 13	Premarital Intimacy in Transnational Marriage: Chinese Women Finding the Right South Korean Husband Hong Jin, Dr Khun Eng Kuah-Pearce, The Department of Sociology, The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, Hong Kong Overview: This is a paper on the negotiation of premarital intimacy in transnational marriage between Chinese brides and South Korean grooms. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Human Being in Context: A Contemporary Buddhist Reading of a Nineteenth-Century Example Dr. Kathleen Louise Gregory, School of Public Health Faculty of Health Sciences, La Trobe University, Melbourne, Australia Overview: Contrasting Western and Buddhist explanations of how nineteenth-century Western interpreters came to believe Buddhism a 'religion of annihilation'; the question of the inter-relationship between consciousness and social context is explored. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 14	Land Use and River Pollution in Northern Part of the Elburz Mountain Danyal Fouroughi, Islamic Azad University-Gorgan Branch, Akbar Sharbati, Payam-e-Noor University of Gorgan, Gorgan, Iran (Islamic Republic of) Overview: Water is the one of the vital factors for human life, and its pollution will encounter human by hazards Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Reporting from the Edge: Philip Slater and the New Journalism Dr. John U. Peters, Department of English, California State University, Northridge, Los Angeles, USA Overview: This essay relates American sociologist Philip Slater's book The Pursuit of Loneliness to aspects of the American literary movement Tom Wolfe has called The New Journalism. Stream: Sociology and Geography
GARDEN SESSION	Jack Goody
13:05-14:05	LUNCH

MON.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:05-14:35		14:40-15:10
Room 1	Interning at Home: Practicum Experiences in a Student-Run Social Welfare Club Dr. John Conahan, Assistant Professor of Social Work, Kutztown University, Kutztown, USA Overview: Field education is an essential component in social work education, but has been criticized for neglecting several key components of the learning process. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	An Interpretation of the Continuous Adaptation of the Self/Environment Process Chris Francovich, Doctoral Program in Leadership Studies, Gonzaga University, Spokane, USA Overview: This paper reflects a synthesis of concepts related to the self interpreted through the lens of ecological psychology. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 2	Economic Globalization in India: The Role of Old and New Traditions in the Development of Socio-Economic Values for Positive Globalization Dr. Santosh Saha, Department of History, Mount Union College (Deemed University), North Canton, USA Overview: Arguing that the leftist universal construct is not economically neutral, my study concludes that globalization in India, engineered by traditions, meant citizens' economic and social empowerment. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Does Tort Law Improve the Health of Newborns, or Miscarry? A Longitudinal Analysis of the Effect of Liability Pressure on Birth Outcomes Dr. Y. Tony Yang, Department of Health Administration and Policy, George Mason University, Fairfax, USA Overview: Using a mixed-effects model, we investigate the impact of malpractice risk, as measured by malpractice insurance premiums and various state tort reforms, on six adverse birth outcomes. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 3		Gender and Relationship Dynamics Involved in the Decision to Use Emergency Contraception: How Women Decide and What Role Their Partners Play in Those Decisions Jill Daugherty, Sociology Department, Emory University, Atlanta, USA Overview: An analysis of a qualitative study looking at how college women decide to use emergency contraception and what role their partners play in that decision. Stream: Sociology and Geography
Room 4	Why Share Knowledge in a Team? A Study on Project-Based IS Team Learning Dr. TIMON Du, Dr. JACQUELINE Wong, Department of Decision Sciences and Managerial Economics, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong Overview: We would like to know how social exchange theory could be the moderator to teamwork quality and the team performance and personal success. Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences	The Digital Musician: An Analysis Prof. Alfred Johnson, Mass Communications Department, Medgar Evers College - City University of New York, Brooklyn, USA Overview: The paper discusses a new music teaching model for instructing the "Digital and Contemporary" musician/student with weak or no music theory background using "Sample-Based Softwares and Sequencers." Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences
Room 5	Medical Exchange along the Silk Road Yuxia Qiu, Integral Studies Department, Academy of Oriental Medicine at Austin, Austin, USA Overview: Medical exchange between China, Central Asia, South Asia, West Asia and Europe along the silk road Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities A

MON.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:05-14:35	14:40-15:10
Room 6	Social Capital in Schools: Perceptions and Performance Gregory K. Plagens, Department of Public Administration and Urban Studies, The University of Akron, Akron, Mark Tompkins, Department of Political Science, University of South Carolina, Columbia, USA Overview: Social capital in U.S. public schools is explored at the school building level to see whether emergence of this intangible resource affects student test scores. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	The Impact of Educators on Student Attitudes Regarding Religion and Evolution Dr Blake Armstrong, Social Sciences Department Division of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, South Texas College, Weslaco, USA Overview: Do professor's views on religion and evolution along with their area of expertise and use of critical thinking skills in the classroom impact student's attitudes regarding religion and evolution? Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 7		Women in Higher Education: A Concern for Development? Dr. Marit Tjomsland, Section of Gender and Development Department of Psychology, University of Bergen, Bergen, Norway Overview: This presentation examines the global situation regarding women, higher education and development and explores some implications of the situation for analyses of women's higher education achievements in developing contexts. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender
Room 8	The Romanian Media Agenda for the 2009 European Elections Nicoleta Corbu, Center for Research in Communication College of Communication and Public Relations, Valeriu Frunzaru, College of Communication and Public Relations, National School of Political and Administrative Studies, Bucharest, Romania Overview: The paper presents the results of the content analysis of TV newscasts and political debates broadcasted during the 2009 Romanian European Parliament elections. Stream: Media and Communications	Strategies to Nurture Aging People Prof. Betsey Gray, School of Social Work, Prof. Nancy MacRae, Department of Occupational Therapy, University of New England, Portland, USA Overview: This presentation will describe an interdisciplinary, educational initiative to decrease falls in a pilot site of community-dwelling seniors. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences
Room 9	Social Sciences in Rural Entrepreneurship: Building and Sustaining a Community Network Ms Annette Watters, Dr. Mike Hardin, Culverhouse College of Commerce and Business Administration, The University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, USA Overview: The University of Alabama draws on several social science disciplines to successfully operate a program intended to encourage entrepreneurship in rural areas of economic distress. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Interdisciplinarity As a Way of Teaching Social Science Dr. James Cairns, Contemporary Studies, Wilfrid Laurier University, Brantford Campus, Brantford, Canada Overview: This paper draws on my teaching experience to argue that interdisciplinarity is a powerful tool for helping undergraduate students understand social science as a particular process of inquiry. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 10	Theatre of the Oppressed: Implications for Participatory Action Research, Collaborative Inquiry, and Decolonizing Methodologies Dr. Hameed Sharif Williams, Individualized Studies Baccalaureate Program, Goddard College, Brooklyn, USA Overview: An experiential introduction and exploration of Theater of the Oppressed, a popular education and community organizing methodology originally created in Brazil and later developed around the world. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods

MON.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:05-14:35	14:40-15:10
Room 11	The Family-in-Environment: Theory for Embracing Difference in Work with Families Dr. Janice Gasker, Social Work Department, Kutztown University of Pennsylvania, Kutztown, USA Overview: Helping professions world-wide now embrace “family-centered service” in response to the changing face of family. Operationalized through logical extension of theory, a new framework for practice emerges: Family-in-Environment. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 12	The Ethical Concerns of Data Mining: The Aggregated Self Dr. Lynne Williams, Information Science and Technology, Master's Program, Kaplan University, Los Alamos, USA, Dr. Diane Neal, Faculty of Information and Media Studies, The University of Western Ontario, London, Canada Overview: An examination of ethical concerns surrounding the practice of data mining. Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences	Positioning E-Learning at the Interstices of Disciplinary Boundaries: Making a Case for Interdisciplinary Research into ICTs in Education Stephen R. Hart, Calgary, Canada Overview: The presenter contends that if ICTs are to be appropriately leveraged to meet educational ends, an interdisciplinary approach to e-learning research is imperative. Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences
Room 13	Establishing Tate Modern: Aims and Methods Caroline Donnellan, Cities Department, London School of Economics, London, UK Overview: This paper will assess how the Tate Gallery developed its vision and economic paradigm for a museum of modern art in this interdisciplinary paper which draws on qualitative case study. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	A Quantitative Political Spectrum and Forecasting of Social Evolution Prof. Stepan S. Sulakshin, Governance and Problem Analysis Center (GAPAC), Moscow, Russian Federation Overview: A new quantitative approach for political spectrum description is suggested. The approved methodology is used to analyze variable political processes and to forecast their evolution. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 14		Public Voice in Environmental Decision Making: The Role of NGOs in China Prof. Yuhong Zhao, Faculty of Law, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, Hong Kong Overview: This paper investigates the social, political and legal factors that have constrained the role of NGOs in environmental decision making in China. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 15	Reforming University Funding in Georgia: Is Student-Based Financing the Answer? Prof. Adrian Ziderman, Economics Department, Bar-Ilan University, Ramat Gan, Israel, Natia Andguladze, Iliia State University, Tbilisi, Georgia Overview: Critical analysis of recent reforms of state funding of universities in the Republic of Georgia, in which 60% of state support is channelled indirectly through merit based student scholarships Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Can Interprofessional Education Stimulate Better Community Healthcare? Sarah Machniewski, Dr. Susan Morison, Centre for Excellence in Interprofessional Education, Queen's University Belfast, Belfast, UK Overview: The paper will discuss how interprofessional education can improve community healthcare and examines two projects designed to promote interactions. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
GARDEN SESSION	Mary Kalantzis

15:10-15:25	COFFEE BREAK
15:25-17:40	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:25-15:55	16:00-16:30	16:35-17:05	17:10-17:40
Room 1	The Contribution of Neuroscience to Understanding Antisocial Behaviour Prof. Kenneth Levy, Faculty of Law, Bond University, Gold Coast, Australia Overview: The neurodynamics and psychopathology of antisocial behaviour, lessons for corrective services and future research potential Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	The Relationship between the Psychological Contract and Job Performance of Employees in the Chemical Industry in South Africa Prof. Christo Van Wyk, School of Behavioral Sciences Faculty of Humanities, North-West University (Vaal Triangle Campus), Vanderbilpark, Me Elsabé Keyser, Industrial Sociology, North-West University, Vanderbilpark, South Africa Overview: The aim of this research was to measure the relationship between the psychological contract and job performance of employees in the chemical industry in South Africa. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	The Pre-Requisites of Creativity: A Cognitive Functions Approach to Enhancing Thinking Dr Oon-Seng Tan, Teacher Education, National Institute of Education, Singapore Overview: Using a cognitive functions approach four clusters of functions are discussed: multiple perceptions, unboxed thinking, unusual thinking and divergent production. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Proposing the Employee Assistance Program Model as a New Paradigm for Medical Student Mental Health Services in Medical Schools Rita Y. Horton, MD, Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center-Shreveport, Mark Cogburn, Department of Psychiatry, Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center - Shreveport, Shreveport, USA Overview: This paper proposes the use of an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) model to assist faculty in detecting and appropriately referring psychological problems in medical students. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences

MON.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:25-15:55	16:00-16:30	16:35-17:05	17:10-17:40
Room 2	The Interdisciplinary Nature of the Study of Race, Ethnicity and Politics Dr. Paula McClain, Dr. Kerry Haynie, Department of Political Science, Duke University, Durham, USA Overview: The study of race, ethnicity and politics in countries as varied as the United States, Britain, France, Australia and other countries is inherently interdisciplinary. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	The Law of the Sea and International Conflict over Undersea Mining: Which Way Us Up? Dr. Denise Russell, Philosophy Faculty of Arts, University of Wollongong, Thirroul, Australia Overview: Current law and policy is inadequate to resolve the international tension and environmental concerns relating to mining under the Polar regions. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Citizens, Democracy and (Post) Modern Political Culture in the Northeast of Thailand Dr Premsak Piayura, Department of Development Sciences, Muang, Dr. Dusadee Ayuwat, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Khon Kaen University, Khon Kaen, Thailand Overview: This paper illustrates how the new political culture in Northeastern Thailand is formed. Data was collected by in-depth interviews with villagers and political leaders in Thailand, analyzed by post-modern perspectives. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 3	University Student Understanding of Cancer: An Exploratory Analysis Lawrence Estaville, Department of Geography, Texas State University, San Marcos, USA Overview: This research probed student understanding of cancer, particularly the willingness to change harmful behaviors to prevent cancer, at Texas State University. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Nikkei Peruvian Children between Peru and Japan: Educational Achievements and Social Mobility Ana Sueyoshi, Department of Social Sciences Faculty of International Studies, Utsunomiya University, Utsunomiya, Japan Overview: The Nikkei Peruvian migration in Japan has meant an unfavourable change in social status, which in turn has pernicious effects on children education in Peru and in Japan Stream: Sociology and Geography	Gendered Migration and Its Implications for Livelihoods and Natural Resource Management Dr. Malika Abdelali-Martini, Social Economic and Policy Research Program, International Center for Agricultural Research in the Dry Areas, Aleppo, Syrian Arab Republic Overview: Changes in agriculture in northern Syria, led to male migration. More women are driven into agriculture. The relationships between migration, livelihoods and NRM are analyzed. Stream: Sociology and Geography	The Zonation of Soil Erosion and Sedimentation in the Khiav Watershed Using the AHP Method Dr. Fariba Esfandiary, Department of Geography Faculty of Humanities, University of Mohaghegh Ardabili, Ardabil, Iran (Islamic Republic of) Overview: This paper identifies the contributive values of factors affecting erosion and generation of sedimentation using a hierarchical method, and then, superimposed on the resulting layers of information using GIS Stream: Sociology and Geography

MON.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:25-15:55	16:00-16:30	16:35-17:05	17:10-17:40
Room 4	The Impact of Boys and Literacy: Connecting Boys with Books, Engaging the Adolescent Reader Mrs. Audrey Cypress, Virginia State University, Ettrick, Mechanicsville, Kenete Lee Anderson, Administration, Richmond Public Schools, USA Overview: In addressing boys and literacy, the focus as it relates to connecting boys to books exists in the educational terrain. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Strategies and Factors that Reduce the Achievement Gap Dr. William Hettich Jeynes, Education, California State University & Baylor University, Long Beach, USA Overview: This presentation focuses on the results of a meta-analysis I have undertaken to determine the factors and strategies that can be drawn from to reduce the achievement gap. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	The Political Development of Educational Institutions: Evidence from Great Britain, the United States, and India Steven Napier, Educational Studies (Ph.D. Program) National Underground Railroad Freedom Center, University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, USA Overview: This paper is a comparative study of the development of educational institutions in Great Britain, the United States, and India. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Rethinking Education and Other Social Institutions in Botswana Dr. Shirley Kelly, Department of Educational Foundations, University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, Whitewater, USA Overview: Toqueville's "Democracy in America" provides a lens with which to analyze and understand the need and demand for changes in social institutions in Botswana. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 5	The Mirror Image: A Connection between the Physical and Social Sciences Prof. Valentino Belfiglio, Department of History and Government, Texas Woman's University, Denton, USA Overview: This article will correlate the concept of mirror image used in international relations theory with the Mirror Equation employed in physics. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Happiness among Turks and Moroccans in the Netherlands Dr. Devrim Dumludag, Faculty of Social Sciences, Ozge Gokdemir, Faculty of Social Sciences, Erasmus University Rotterdam, Rotterdam, Netherlands Overview: This paper examines the happiness among Moroccan and Turkish immigrants in the Netherlands by applying quantitative and qualitative methods. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Using a Story Method to Generate Analytic Understanding in Participant Observation Research Dr. Vicky Ward, Dr. Rebecca Hawkins, Bridgette M Bewick, Dr. Jeff Round, Leeds Institute of Health Sciences, University of Leeds, Leeds, UK Overview: This paper will describe the use of an innovative 'story method' for helping a participant observer produce analytic understanding. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Cultural Perception of Disability: The Case of the Visually Impaired Migrant in Ireland Esther Murphy, School of Applied Languages and Intercultural Studies, Dublin City University, Dublin, Ireland Overview: This paper investigates how cultural perceptions of disability impact upon how migrants with a visual impairment adapt to living in Ireland Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods

MON.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:25-15:55	16:00-16:30	16:35-17:05	17:10-17:40
Room 6	What Is Art Therapy and How Do We Know It Works? An Australian Perspective on the Need for More Research Jo Kelly, JK Psychotherapy & Training Services, Yamba, Australia Overview: Art Therapy is relatively new profession in Australia. It is unregulated. Yet many therapists use it in therapeutic work, whether they are qualified in this area or not. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Teachers' Levels of Use in the Adoption of Task-Based Language Teaching in Malaysian Classrooms Dr. Zarina Mustafa, School of Educational Studies, Universiti Sains Malaysia, Georgetown, Malaysia Overview: To investigate teachers' levels of use in the adoption of task-based language teaching in the classrooms, and to highlight their encountered challenges Stream: Education and Social Welfare	The Assumptions Underlying Arms Transfers: Towards a More Meaningful Framework for Policy Analysis Dr. Daryl Bockett, Faculty of Intercultural Communications, Rikkyo University, Ikebukuro, Japan Overview: An in-depth examination and critique of the assumptions underlying the use of conventional arms transfers as a foreign policy tool. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Competing Conceptions of Nationhood: Cultural Dimensions of India-Pakistan Conflict and the Subcontinental Security Dynamics Dr. H.M. Sanjeev Kumar, Department of Political Science, University of Allahabad, Allahabad, India Overview: The paper discusses the interplay of Hindu nationalism and subcontinental Muslim nationalism as a substratum of inter-state antagonisms in the subcontinent and how globalisation has crystallized this interplay. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 7	Field Fusion: Interdisciplinarity and the Confluence of the Social Sciences and the Humanities within the Study and Practice of History Dr. Heather Parker, Department of History Social Science Division, Saint Leo University, Saint Leo, USA Overview: History is the fusion of social sciences and the humanities. History departments must maximize the potential for interdisciplinary activities both within the social sciences and with disciplines within the Humanities. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	The Digital Mode of History: An Immersive Computer-Assisted Approach to the Historical Narrative Jerremie Clyde, Libraries and Cultural Resources, University of Calgary, Dr. Glenn Wilkinson, History, St. Mary's University College, Calgary, Canada Overview: Workshop exploring the theory behind authoring and presenting scholarship in a multi-media digital mode rather than the more traditional textual mode. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities		Oblivion, Remembrance and Power: The Case of the Establishment of Monuments to Indigenous Deceased Solders in Post-War Atayal Township, Taiwan Yueh-Po Huang, Department of Archaeology and Anthropology, University of Bristol, Reading, UK Overview: Remembering and forgetting the Atayal deceased soldiers in an Atayal Township in post-war Taiwan Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities

MON.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:25-15:55	16:00-16:30	16:35-17:05	17:10-17:40
Room 8	Fostering Reflective Practice among Undergraduate Students in Authentic Learning Environments: Key Learnings from Strategic Initiatives Implemented in an Australian Context Berni Murphy, School of Health and Social Development, Deakin University, Melbourne, Australia Overview: Findings from an evaluation of student responses to authentic learning environments and reflective practice exercises in an Australian undergraduate Health Sciences context. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Preparing Graduates for the Professions: Achieving Employability through the Exploration of Near-World Scenarios Dr. Edward Peter Errington, Teaching & Learning Development, James Cook University, Townsville, Australia Overview: The author reports on the efficacy of three kinds of near-world scenarios used by university educators to prepare graduates for the professions. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Human and Social Capital for Vulnerable Populations: Insight from Employed People Experiencing Homelessness Dr. John R. Graham, Micheal Shier, Faculty of Social Work, University of Calgary, Calgary, Dr. Marion E. Jones, Department of Economics, University of Regina, Regina, Canada Overview: The personal factors contributing to social and human capital are discussed for a population of employed people experiencing homelessness in Calgary Alberta Canada. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	A History of the Whole School Approach to Guidance: Hong Kong 1990-2003 Dr. Mei Fong Fanny Lau, English Department, HKCCCU Logos Academy, Hong Kong, China Overview: The presentation is about a historical introduction of a Whole School Approach to Guidance (WSA) in Hong Kong from 1990 to 2003 and its effects. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 9	Students as Consumers of Knowledge: Are They Buying What We're Selling? Dr. Jill Singleton-Jackson, Dr. Dennis Jackson, Department of Psychology Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, Jeffrey Reinhardt, Department of Psychology Applied Social Area, University of Windsor, Windsor, Canada Overview: This will be a presentation of qualitative and quantitative data collected regarding student entitlement from first-year university students in Canada. Discussion of implications for faculty will also be included. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Psychology as a Coalescent Process of Entrepreneurship Development Gopalan Nagasubramanian, National Institute of Technology, Tiruchirappalli, India Overview: This study on entrepreneurial development witnesses a shift from Economics to Psychology because of the work of McClelland (1961), Miner (1996) and Panel Study on Entrepreneurial dynamics. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Patterns of Physics Problem-Solving and Metacognition among Secondary School Students: A Comparative Study between the UK and Malaysian Cases Dr Fatin Aliah Phang, Faculty of Education, Universiti Teknologi Malaysia, Skudai, Malaysia Overview: A comparative study on the Physics problem solving patterns and metacognition among secondary school students in the UK and Malaysia using qualitative research methods. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Estimations of Health and Personal Traits Attribution to Attractive and Unattractive Face Stimuli Elena A. Nikitina, Laboratory of Developmental Psychology Institute of Psychology, Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow, Russian Federation Overview: Russian school and university students estimations of attractiveness, health, strength, kindness, openness, courage and intelligence of attractive and unattractive stimuli photos were studied. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences

MON.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:25-15:55	16:00-16:30	16:35-17:05	17:10-17:40
Room 10	The Pattern of Illegal Taxi Business in Hua-Hin District, Prachuapkhirikhan Province, Thailand Manassinee Boonmeesrisa-nga, Tourism Management Field of Study Faculty of Management Science, Silpakorn University, Cha Am District, Thailand Overview: The article is discussing the illegal taxi service in Hua Hin, Prachuapkhirikhan province, Thailand. Stream: Economics and Management	Family Efficiency in Producing Children's Educational and Behavioral Outcomes and Its Impact on Adulthood Development: Evidence from a UK Longitudinal Study Dr. Yuxin Li, Institute for Employment Research, University of Warwick, Coventry, UK Overview: The paper applies a multiple-output stochastic distance function to investigate families' efficiency in producing children's outcomes. The relationship between the estimated efficiency and adulthood development is also explored. Stream: Economics and Management	The Development of Ranong's Local Food Potential towards Tourism Promotion Suwicha Komaladat, Department of Business and Administration, Srinakarinwirot University, Huay-Kwang, Thailand Overview: The objective of this research is to develop the Ranong's local food and local food vendor as the domestic tourism promotional tools. Stream: Economics and Management	Creating a Context for the Development of Servant Leadership Simon Taylor, Department of Management, Rhodes University, Grahamstown, Dr. Noel Pearse, Prof. Lynette Louw, Faculty of Commerce, Rhodes University, Grahamstown, South Africa Overview: The aim of this paper is to describe the contextual factors that contributed to the successful development of leadership in a school environment. Stream: Economics and Management
Room 11			Violence against Women in Pakistan: A Case Study of Cholistani Women Samehia Aziz, Criminology Department (Kingston University), Kingston University, The Islamia University Bahawalpur, London, UK Overview: Existing research will point out the significant violations of human rights against women in relation to issues of gender violence. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Misunderstanding Faith: When 'Capital' Does Not Fit the 'Spiritual' Francesca Eva Sara Montemaggi, School of City and Planning, Cardiff University, Cardiff, UK Overview: The paper criticises the use of social and spiritual capital for the analysis of faith-based organisations and proposes an alternative framework based on Simmel's sociology of religion. Stream: Sociology and Geography

MON.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:25-15:55	16:00-16:30	16:35-17:05	17:10-17:40
Room 12	Construction of a Social Space to Escape from Displaced Marginality for Bankha Karen People in Western Thailand Dr. Phitak Siriwong, Department of Community Development, Silpakorn University, Cha-am, Thailand Overview: The process of constructing a social space for the Bankha Karen people of the Bankha district, Ratchaburi Province, Thailand and their efforts to escape from a sense of displaced marginality Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Successful Aging: A Case Study of Elderly Society for Exercise at Phutamonthon 4 Park, Bangkok, Thailand Taninrat Rattanapongpinyo, General Business Management Faculty of Management Science, Silpakorn University, Cha Am, Thailand Overview: Aging people are one of the most important population in Thailand because they can be the social contributors. Working for society will make them happy. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities		The Contribution of Language to the Construction of Self-identity Among Young Turkish-Australian Females Ruhil Amal Azmuddin, Centre for Modern Languages and Human Sciences, Universiti Malaysia, Pahang, Kuantan, Prof. Daing Zaidah Ibrahim, Department of Social Sciences, Universiti Tun Abdul Razak (UNIRAZAK), Kelana Jaya, Malaysia Overview: This paper looks at the various components of ethnic identity by examining the contribution of language to the self-identity of young Turkish-Australian females. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities

MON.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:25-16:30	16:35-17:05	17:10-17:40
Room 13	The Inquiry Stance and the Ecosystem Lens: A Natural Combination for Successful Student/ Practitioner Research Dr. Mary Bellucci Buckelew, Education & English Departments, West Chester University, West Chester, USA Overview: I propose that the interdisciplinary study of the biological “ecosystem” combined with an “inquiry/research stance” equals student success in all content areas. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Complications in Counting Suicide in the United States: The Case of Poisoning Dr Ian R.H. Rockett, Department of Community Medicine and Injury Control Research Center, Dr Gerry Hobbs, Department of Statistics, West Virginia University, Morgantown, USA, Prof Diego De Leo, Australian Institute for Suicide Research and Prevention, Griffith University, Mt Gravatt, Australia, Dr Steven Stack, Department of Criminal Justice, Wayne State University, Detroit, USA Overview: Two counter-trends in mortality have been separately documented in the United States – diminishing suicide rates and rising unintentional poisoning rates. Are they independent? Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Procedural Justice and Livelihood Outcomes: Framework for Analyzing the Attitudes of Resettlers and Hosts towards Resettlement Gutu Olana Wayessa, Department of Economic and Political Studies, University of Helsinki, Helsinki, Finland Overview: The paper presents a framework for analyzing people’s attitudes and perceptions towards resettlement. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 14	Cultivating Character through Social Enterprise Planning Dr. Donald B. Summers, School of Business and Economics, Seattle Pacific University, Seattle, USA Overview: Students form character traits associated with helping others through a social enterprise planning competition. Stream: Economics and Management		Patron-Client Relationships, Electoral Mechanisms and Determinants of Voting Behaviour: The Case of Local Governments in Pakistan Aamer Taj, Politics and International Relations, University of Southampton, Southampton, UK Overview: This paper explains the patron-client relationships, issues in electoral mechanisms and determinants of voting behaviour in context of local government reforms (2001) in Pakistan. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Social Welfare at the Crossroads: Evidence-Based Practice or Critical Practice? Dr. Paul Stepney, Social Work Division School of Health, University of Wolverhampton, Wolverhampton, UK Overview: Social Welfare practitioners today face a paradoxical choice: finding more evidence-based ways of managing risk, whilst balancing the freedom of the global market with a commitment to social justice. Stream: Education and Social Welfare

MON.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:25-15:55	16:00-16:30	16:35-17:05	17:10-17:40
Room 15	Transnational Malaysian Cinema: Problematizing the National Yuen Beng Lee, School of Culture and Communication, University of Melbourne, Melbourne, Australia Overview: This paper is a literature review on the history of Malaysian cinema built on transnational forces. Stream: Media and Communications

Sessions: Tuesday, 03 August

9:30-10:05	PLENARY SESSION - Rom Harre , Georgetown University, London School of Economics, Washington DC, USA, London, UK
10:10-11:15	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	10:10-10:40	10:45-11:15
Room 1	A Study of Domestic Violence among the South Asian in Hong Kong Jenny Chingkhannem Tonsing, Criminology & Sociology, Royal Holloway, University of London, London, UK Overview: The purpose of the present study is to give women a platform for their stories to be told, for their voices to be heard, and to document their experiences. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Community and Communication: Strategies for Sustainability Toni-Anne Carroll, Faculty of Science, Mathematics and Engineering, Curtin University of Technology, Hobart, Australia Overview: This presentation will focus on the sustainability of a small Australian community facing an uncertain future. Stream: Sociology and Geography
Room 2	Television Viewing and Body Images of African American and White Women: Similarities and Differences Dr. Subir Sengupta, School of Communication & the Arts, Marist College, Poughkeepsie, USA Overview: The study looked at the impact of television viewing and other socio-cultural factors on body image of African-American and White women. Stream: Media and Communications	The Movie Professor: Implications for Theory and Policy Studies Dr. Christine Lei, Contemporary Studies, Wilfrid Laurier University, Hamilton, Canada Overview: An examination of the culture and history of the "movie professor" from a gendered, socio-economic, and racial perspective in order to understand the implications on universities, faculty and students. Stream: Media and Communications
Room 3	The Entrapment of Performativity: A Narrative Study of a Beginning Teacher Jason Loh, English Language & Literature Academic Group, National Institute of Education, Nanyang Technical University, Singapore, Singapore Overview: This is a study of how a beginning teacher is influenced by the school culture and the "terrors of performativity" in his first year as a teacher. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Improving Children's Lives: Reflecting on a University Based Inter-disciplinary Research Initiative Dr. Emma Larkin, Centre for Effective Education, Dr. Laura Lundy, School of Education, Queen's University Belfast, Belfast, UK Overview: This paper will reflect on the process of operationalising an innovative children's rights-based inter-disciplinary research initiative. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 4	Reevaluating the Efficient Capital Markets Hypothesis: The Case of Hong Kong Prof Berry Fong Chung Hsu, Department of Real Estate and Construction, Dr Arner Doug, Asian Institute of International Financial Law, University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, China Overview: This article addresses fairness and governmental role in financial regulation. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Crime and Deviance in the Electronic Agora: Challenges to Policing Social Networking Websites Dr. George Edward Richards, Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice, Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, Edinboro, USA Overview: This paper is a discussion of the use of social networking websites for criminal activity and the efforts of law enforcement agencies to prevent these crimes. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 5	Beyond Student-Centered Education: A Model for Teaching Learning-to-Learn Strategies Dr. Ronald Paige, Center of Emphasis for Instructional Technology, Cleveland State Community College, Cleveland, USA Overview: An entrepreneurial learner is one who organizes, manages, and assumes the risks for his own learning. This paper introduces the Entrepreneurial Learning Model and offers suggestions for implementation. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	An Integrated Learning Programme for the Knysna Montessori School Prof. Tilla Olivier, Faculty of Education, Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University, Port Elizabeth, Dr. Andri Nel, Knysna Montessori School, South Africa Overview: An integrated learning programme for the Knysna Montessori School is possible, based on Montessori principles and in line with the South African Revised National Curriculum Statement requirements. Stream: Education and Social Welfare

TUES.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	10:10-10:40	10:45-11:15
Room 6	Dialogical Self and Masculinities: Queer Masculinities as Resistance to Hegemony Dr Jack Kahn, Psychology Department, Curry College, Lynsey Goddard, Boston, USA Overview: This project will present an interdisciplinary approach to the study of masculinity by applying the theoretical perspectives of dialogical self and hegemonic masculinity to the study of queer masculinities. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender	Young Male, Violence and Construction of Masculinities: An Ethnographic Approach Ana-Maria Buller, PEHRU Unit Public Health and Policy Department, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, London, UK Overview: Qualitative study in an urban deprived area in Lima, Peru, looking at the relationship between young male experiences of everyday street-violence and constructions of masculinity prevalent in their social context Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender
Room 7	'Wanting' in an Interactional Context: The Performative Nature of Mental State Expressions in Everyday Family Interaction Carrie Childs, Department of Social Sciences, Loughborough University, UK Overview: An examination of the uses of the mental state expression 'want' in everyday family interaction. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	A Descriptive-agnostic Study of the Nature of Stress among South African Winegrowers Prof Dirk Johannes Malan, Department of Industrial Psychology, Stellenbosch, Annemarie Pretorius, University of Stellenbosch, South Africa Overview: An empirical study of the stressors that winegrowers are exposed to; its impact on their psychological health, and how it is moderated by organisational and personality variables. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 8	Teaching to Address: The Role of Post-Colonial Critical Pedagogy in Doctoral Nursing Education in Developing Social Responsibility Dr. Carol Parker Walsh, School of Human and Organizational Development, Fielding Graduate University, Santa Barbara, USA Overview: This paper will (a) explore the relationship between using a post-colonial critical pedagogy teaching method and desired social responsibility; and (b) discuss student comments regarding their desired social responsibility. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Social Work Training in Vietnam: The Role of Communist Party Mass Organisations and the State in Managing Impacts of Social and Economic Change Julian Silverman, School of Global Studies Social Sciences and Planning, RMIT University, Melbourne, Australia Overview: The paper explores issues faced by Vietnam in the development of social work training. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 9		Conversations with Truckies: Looking at Life through Glass Dr Jann Karp, University of Western Sydney, Gosford, Australia Overview: Conversations in situ, with Australian Long Haul Interstate Drivers during the global economic downturn, 2008-2010. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 10	Asian Immigrant Families: The Role of Family Resilience in the Settlement Experience Dr. Robyn Dixon, Centre for Child and Family Research Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences, University of Auckland, Auckland, Dr. Amritha Sobrun-Maharaj, Social and Community Health School of Population Health, The University of Auckland, Dr. Fiona Rossen, Auckland, New Zealand Overview: This qualitative study examines the role family resilience plays in the quality of the settlement experience of Asian immigrant and refugee families in New Zealand. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Impacts of the Work Experiences of Asian Immigrants on Family Wellbeing Dr. Amritha Sobrun-Maharaj, Social and Community Health School of Population Health, The University of Auckland, Dr. Fiona Rossen, Auckland, New Zealand Overview: This study investigates the work experiences of immigrants from China, South Asia, Korea and Southeast Asia in New Zealand, and their impacts on family wellbeing. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences

TUES.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	10:10-10:40		10:45-11:15
Room 11	Major Facators Impeding Sustainable Development in Sub-Saharan Africa: Globalization and Economic Growth Dr. Hailu Abatena, School of Social Work, Norfolk State University, Dr. Zemedkun Wold, Norfolk State University, School of Business, Norfolk, USA Overview: Analysis of the effects of institutional framework, development policy, mismanagement of scarce of sources, and globalization on Sub-Saharan Africa Development: The effect of globalization on these factors will be examined. Stream: Economics and Management	Using Peer-to-Peer Loans in a Student-Managed Fund Dr. Lynda Livingston, School of Business and Leadership, University of Puget Sound, Jiri Senkyrik, Thomas Glassman, 4 Horseman Investments, Tacoma, USA Overview: The paper describes a student-managed fund based on Prosper's peer-to-peer loan platform. Stream: Economics and Management
Room 12	A New Urban Poverty? The Financial Impact on the Consumption Standard in Brazilian Slums Kaue Lopes dos Santos, College of Architecture and Urbanism, University of Sao Paulo, Sao Paulo, Brazil Overview: In the globalized era, the increasing availability and access to credit among the poorest population of Brazilian metropolises has changed their consumption standards. Stream: Sociology and Geography
Room 13	What Does It Mean to Study Humanities? "It Is the Understanding That Sets Man Above the Rest of Sensible Beings" Dr. Michael Goldberg, Humanities Mathematics, Kentucky Country Day School, Louisville, USA Overview: A description of what a modern study of "Humanities" might entail, based on my personal experience of building a two-year high school curriculum designated a "Humanities Survey." Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Women, Sexuality and Political Achievement: The Illustrations of Thai Society and Thai Literature: A Comparison Dr. Orathai Piayura, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Khon Kaen University, Muang, Thailand Overview: The issue of sexuality in Thai society is taboo. This article illustrates how Thai woman politicians have to struggle in their political career because of the issue of sex. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 14	Uncover the Invisible: A Case Study of Batik and Batik Convection Industry in the Sragen-Surakarta-Sukoharjo Cluster Ina Hunga, Centre for Gender Research and Studies, Satya Wacana Christian University Salatiga, Indonesia Overview: The "Putting-Out" System (POS) has long existed in Indonesia, but it now shows significant, more prominent differences from POS in general. Its transformation happens through the exploitative and gender-biased relationships. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender
Room 15		Creating the Oral Tradition and Aphorisms of the Lambadas through Experiential History Mohan Dharavath, Department of Commonwealth Literature, English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad, India Overview: The paper explores the aphorisms of India's Lambada Tribes to show the richness of their culture and tradition. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
11:15-11:30	COFFEE BREAK

TUES.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	11:30-12:00		12:05-12:35
Room 1	Developing a Theoretical Model of Medication Adherence Among Solid-Organ Transplant Recipients Dr. Marie Chisholm-Burns, Dr. Christina Spivey, Department of Pharmacy Practice and Science, The University of Arizona College of Pharmacy, Tucson, USA Overview: This paper examines psycho-socio-behavioral models relevant to health behavior in the development of a conceptual model for understanding, predicting, and modifying the medication adherence behavior of solid-organ transplant recipients. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Use of Social Cognitive Theory to Guide Medical Treatment Adherence Interventions Dr. Christina Spivey, Dr. Marie Chisholm-Burns, Department of Pharmacy Practice and Science, The University of Arizona College of Pharmacy, Tucson, USA Overview: In this paper, we discuss the application of social cognitive theory as the basis for an intervention to promote medical treatment adherence among renal transplant recipients (RTRs). Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences
Room 2	The Creation of Meaning for Death on Facebook: A Burkian Analysis Dr. Robin Broughton, Communication & Media Studies, West Virginia State University, Charleston, USA Overview: This paper offers a Burkian critical analysis of the construction of death on social networking sites such as Facebook. Stream: Media and Communications	The Media and Marijuana in Canada: A Discourse Analysis Robin Repta, School of Nursing, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada Overview: In this presentation we will describe the results of our critical discourse analysis of Canadian newspaper reporting on marijuana from 1997-2007. Stream: Media and Communications
Room 3	The Cultural Implications of Coming Home Dr. Bitsy Wedin, Northern Michigan University, Marquette, USA Overview: Descriptive phenomenological study exploring the cultural implications of returning home following weeks of expedition canoeing in the Canadian Arctic. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 4	The Ethical Weapon: Domestic and Extralocal Intervention and Non-Lethal Weaponry Seantel Anais, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada Overview: This article considers the extent to which non-lethal weaponry has emerged as a function of the mobilization of particular ethical crises concerning the humane treatment of civilians and combatants. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Legal Tactics in the Juvenile Courtroom: Verbal and Bodily Performance As an Object of Exchange with the Judges Bengü Kurtege Sefer, The Atatürk Institute for Modern Turkish History, Bogazici University, Istanbul, Turkey Overview: I scrutinize (in)effective patterns in verbal and bodily performances in juvenile courtroom hearings to show the isolation of juveniles and legal treatment as adult, new justice policy in Turkey. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 5	Evaluation of an In-Service Education Program for Primary School EFL Teachers in Turkey Hacer Hande Uysal, Foreign Language Education, Gazi University, Ankara, Turkey Overview: The study externally evaluates the long-term effects of an in-service teacher training program offered by the Ministry of Education in Turkey. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	The Elementary School EFL Teachers' Interacting Beliefs and Practices of Grammar Teaching and Error Correction Hacer Hande Uysal, Mehmet Bardakci, Foreign Language Education, Gazi University, Ankara, Turkey Overview: The study explores elementary school English language teachers' beliefs and practices regarding teaching grammar and error correction through a questionnaire adapted from Zucker's (2007) study and a focus-group interview. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 6	Co-construction of Electronic Texts to Educate for Health: Cultural and Linguistic Nuances in Message Design Dr. Valerie Ubbes, Kinesiology and Health, Miami University, Oxford, USA Overview: Constructivist theory fosters collaborative, inquiry-based study of concepts and misconceptions of meaning making. Electronic texts are artistic media that educate for health through cultural and linguistic nuances in message design. Stream: Media and Communications

TUES.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	11:30-12:00		12:05-12:35
Room 7	Medical and Behavioral Health Care: Integrated Health Care Practice and Patient's Opinion Veronica Rivera, Human Development and Family Studies Education, and Psychology School of Education, Colorado State University, Fort Collins, USA Overview: The connection of medical health and mental health in the primary care setting (integrated care), and the opinion reported by patients about their experience with these services. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 8	Educational Experience of Refugee Adolescents: An Exploratory Study Diana Krajewski Lockwood, Education, Agnes Scott College, Atlanta, USA Overview: This presentation describes a study conducted to gain an understanding about teacher cultural competence to encourage the learning experience of refugee adolescents newly arrived in the USA. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	The Myth Says Responsibility for Education Is Exclusive to the Provinces in Canada: Canada's Real Place in the International World of Education Dr. Ron Phillips, Faculty of Education, Nipissing University, North Bay, Canada Overview: The federal government of Canada has constitutional powers in education. However, this is difficult to find in the literature. The result - First Nations education is ignored. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 9	Emergence and Reductionism in Financial Systems Dr. Khaldoun Khashanah, School of Systems and Enterprises Financial Engineering, Stevens Institute of Technology, Hoboken, United States Virgin Islands Overview: Financial systems are examples of large-scale cognition-centric infrastructural systems. Reductionism fails to capture their complexity. Stream: Economics and Management
Room 10	Discourses of Ethical Universalism in Johannesburg: Expressions of Universalist Values Prof. Peter D S Stewart, Development Studies, University of South Africa, Johannesburg, South Africa Overview: The paper examines the prevalence and nature of universalist value claims among a small sample of respondents in Johannesburg that reflects a spread of social and economic positions. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Who Defines Me? Orientalism Revisited and Occidentalism Redefined in the Post-9/11 Era Eid Mohamed, American Studies, George Washington University, Falls Church, USA Overview: My work investigates the post 9/11 US/Middle East encounters in order to map out how they can balance conflicting pressures - internal dissent and outward threats. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 11	Writing and Directing Research: Production of Interdisciplinary Relations between Image and Text Dr. Marta Rabikowska, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, University of East London, London, UK Overview: Through the examples of video and ethnographic writing, the ethical and aesthetic relations between text and image will be analysed in order to understand the politico-economic conditions of interdisciplinary research. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 12	An Understanding of Work Ethic: Locus of Control and Religious Orientation Dr Başak Uçanok, Public Relations Programme Department of Communication, Istanbul Bilgi University, İstanbul, Turkey Overview: The main aim of this study is to test whether work ethic can be explained by religious orientation and locus of control. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	The Child Rearing Problems and Parental Control Agnieszka Szymańska, Cognitive Psychology Faculty of Psychology, Warsaw University, Warsaw, Poland Overview: A structural equation model for child rearing problems and parental control Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 13	Impact of Task-Based Learning on Indonesian Tertiary EFL Students' Employment of Oral Communication Strategies Siti Rohani, Faculty of Education, Monash University, Melbourne, Australia	Japanese Lesson Study in the United States: Improving Mathematics Practices in Urban American Elementary Schools Dr. Christopher Johnston, College of Education and Human Development, George Mason

TUES.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	11:30-12:00	12:05-12:35
	Overview: This paper presents preliminary findings on a research conducted in Indonesia. It dealt with students' employment of oral communication strategies when a Task-Based Learning was implemented. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	University, Fairfax, USA Overview: This session will describe an innovative professional development model for elementary mathematics teachers based on Japanese Lesson Study. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 14	Teaching Anthropognostic Sciences at the Greek Architectural Schools: The Aristotle University of Thessaloniki Architectural School Case Study Evmorfili Kamarinopoulou, Oreokastro, Greece Overview: After the publication of the European Council directive 2005/36/EC (architect's professional skills) results there was need to reorganize the way the anthropognostic sciences are being taught in Greek architectural schools. Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences	Sociological Orientation of International Law? Constraints and Challenges for Socio-Legal Research Dr Muruga Perumal Ramaswamy, Faculty of Law, University of Macau, Macau, China Overview: The paper examines whether various contemporary developments in international law and institutions indicate any evidence of sociological reorientation of international law justifying calls for socio-legal research. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 15
12:35-13:35	LUNCH

TUES.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	13:35-14:05	14:10-14:40
Room 1	Suicide Ideation among Hong Kong Working-age Adults: Risk and Protective Factors, Moderators and Mediators Yi Zhang, Department of Social Work and Social Administration Faculty of Social Sciences, The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, Hong Kong Overview: Seeking to provide an accurate estimation of risk factors and protective factors in predicting incidence, persistence, and change of severity of suicide ideation and an in-depth evaluation of their mechanisms Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Sustainable Development: From Interdisciplinarity in Discourse to Practices Dr Pauline Plagnat-Cantoreggi, Institute of Environmental Sciences Human Ecology, University of Geneva, Geneva, Switzerland Overview: Is sustainable development the possible field to practice an embodied interdisciplinarity by integrating social sciences and natural sciences? From Environnement to its political comprehension, there is room, but how? Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences
Room 2	A Social Justice Curriculum within a Business Degree: Merging the Disciplines of Business, Theological Studies, Sociology, and Education Dr. Joanne Neal, Faculty of Education, Concordia University College of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada Overview: This paper outlines a dual track curriculum for a business degree with a concentration in social justice as described from a Christian perspective. Stream: Economics and Management	Territorial Embeddedness and Regional Economic Development: A Social-Economic Perspective of New Energy Industrial Parks in China Fan Yang, Interdisciplinary Research Center of Territory and Spatial Planning, Paul Cézanne University Aix-Marseille III, Yina Chai, Cret-log, University of the Mediterranean, Aix en Provence, France Overview: Relation between territorial embeddedness and regional economic development in the context of an emerging market. A social-economic study of new energy industrial parks in China. Stream: Economics and Management
Room 3	Tongue-Twister Effects in the Silent and Oral Reading of Japanese Sentences: Are Fricatives Difficult? Dr. Sachiko Matsunaga, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, California State University, Los Angeles, Los Angeles, USA Overview: This study reports findings that showed tongue-twister effects, particularly with fricatives, in the silent and oral reading of Japanese sentences, and discusses their implication in the phonological processes of reading. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Beyond a Shadow of Doubt: The Dangerous Nature of Dogmatic Belief Dr. Judy J. Johnson, Department of Psychology, Mount Royal University, Calgary, Canada Overview: Dogmatism is the arrogant voice of certainty that closes the mind, damages relationships, and threatens peaceful coexistence. This paper presents a landmark theory of dogmatism, in all its manifestations. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 4	The Politics of Translation and Institutionalization of the Global Anti-Money Laundering Norms in Israel Oleg Komlik, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Ben-Gurion University, Beer-Sheva, Israel Overview: By proposing a new theoretical framework of translation, the paper unveils the political process through which the global norms against Money Laundering have been institutionalizing into the Israeli Law. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	The Rights of Victims of Crime under Malaysian Law Dr Nasimah Hussin, Faculty of Law, International Islamic University Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia Overview: This paper will focus on adequacy of law in protecting the rights of victims of crime in Malaysia. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law

TUES.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	13:35-14:05	14:10-14:40
Room 5	Exploring Trans-Cultural Partnerships within Third Sector Organisations in New Zealand Dr. Peter Evan Walker, Department of Social Work and Community Development, University of Otago, Dunedin, New Zealand Overview: This paper explores the social and organisational dynamics that impact on organisational partnerships between indigenous peoples', immigrant peoples' and mainstream social service organisations. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Substantiating Constructivism from a Brain-Based Perspective Sarah Burnett, Special Education Department, Claremont Graduate University, Claremont, USA Overview: The seminal work of Jean Piaget is substantiated by recent research in the field of neuroscience and cellular biology. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 6	Society and Theatre: The Characterization of Female Prostitutes in Mainstream Drama and Its' Effect on the Portrayal of Female Characters Dr. Ester Levanon-Mordoch, Drama and Arts and Literature section Humanistics Department, Kibutzim College of Education, Oranim Academic College of Education, Kibbutz Gazit, Israel Overview: The questions relating to the representation of prostitutes in the dramatic text are examined in context of prostitution as a socio-economical class construct, and as a gender-defined locus. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender	Combining Motherhood and Employment in Sri Lanka: Habitus and Field Thilakshi Kodagoda, Department of Social Sciences and Humanities, Bradford, Simon Duncan, School of Social Sciences, University of Bradford, UK Overview: Using grounded theory approach with Bourdieu's concepts, I show how professional and managerial mothers combine mothering with employment in Sri Lanka. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender
Room 7	The Painting on the Wall: Resisting through Art in Palestine Gizem Tongo, History Department, Bogazici University, Istanbul, Turkey Overview: This study explores the images created collectively by artists, activists and ordinary people on the apartheid wall between Israel and Palestine since 2003. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Unstable Boundaries: Artistic Practice and the Sciences Hilmar Schaefer, Department of Cultural Sociology, University of Konstanz, Konstanz, Germany Overview: This paper seeks to explore the instability of disciplinary boundaries between visual art and the natural and social sciences. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 8		The Evolution of Budgetary Institutions in Estonia: A Puzzle for Fiscal Governance Literature? Dr. Ringa Raudla, The Department of Public Administration The Faculty of Social Sciences, Tallinn University of Technology, Tallinn, Estonia Overview: This paper examines the evolution of fiscal governance institutions in Estonia and explains why the Estonian case contradicts the existing theories of fiscal governance. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 9	Gender-Appropriate Responses to Snakes in Kenya: Culture, Concepts and Context Dr. David Wojnowski, Department of Teacher Education and Administration College of Education, University of North Texas, Denton, USA Overview: The purpose of this study was to investigate whether snakes are conceived differently by Wakasigau women based on gender in relation to cultural influences and context. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Wordsworth's Green Letters: From Kendal-to-Windermere Dr. Dewey W. Hall, Department of English, California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, Pomona, USA Overview: This paper will discuss how Wordsworth's two letters against the Kendal-to-Windermere Railway reflect an ecological consciousness in his attempt to deter the rise of rampant industrialism. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences

TUES.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	13:35-14:05	14:10-14:40
Room 10	Arguments, Scenarios, and Many Experts: A New Approach to Long-Range Global Demographic Forecasting Dr Bilal Barakat, Vienna Institute of Demography, Austrian Academy of Sciences, Dr Stuart Basten, Prof. Wolfgang Lutz, International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis, Vienna, Austria Overview: A unique argument-based forecasting and modelling exercise for global fertility, mortality, migration and education trends up to 2050 based on large-scale electronic consultation of local and global experts. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Validating the LAS-C: The Psychometric Properties of the Chinese Version of the Life Attitude Schedule Dr. Hsiu-Ju Chang, College of Nursing, Taipei Medical University, Taipei, Taiwan Overview: The Chinese version of the Life Attitude Schedule (LAS-C) is a reliable and valid instrument to measure the risk of suicidal and life-threatening behaviors in adolescents. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 11	Designing Interdisciplinary Interactive Work: Basic Sciences in Engineering Education Prof. Alicia Maria Tinnirello, Multidisciplinary Laboratory of Basic Sciences, Universidad Tecnológica Nacional Facultad Regional Rosario, Rosario, Eduardo Alberto Gago, Monica Beatriz Dadamo, Basic Sciences Computer Laboratory, Universidad Tecnológica Nacional. Facultad Regional Rosario, Argentina Overview: Generate new styles of work, applying alternative methodologies in engineering education to provide through the basic cycle, the update on content and skills needed to perform future professional in engineering Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences	The Role of Expert Bodies in Framing Acquisition, Evaluating and Publicizing Scientific Information for Mobile Phone Health Risk Policy-Making in Germany Christoph Schweikardt, Institute for History, Theory and Ethics in Medicine, RWTH Aachen University, Aachen, Germany Overview: Expert bodies played a pivotal role in mobile phone health risk regulation in Germany, implementing a research programme according to values propagated by government and providing arguments for governance. Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences
Room 12	The Informal Sector in Papua New Guinea: Activities and Government Response Philip Sawi Kavan, Faculty of Business and Government, University of Canberra, Canberra, Australia Overview: The informal sector is defined as unorganized, unregulated and unregistered. The business activities of this sector are mostly carried out by individual or family self-employment. Stream: Economics and Management	Financial Reporting and Corporate Governance Mechanisms Dr Ahmad Bello, Department of Accounting Faculty of Administration, Ahmadu Bello University Zaria, Kaduna, Nigeria Overview: The study will look into relationship between corporate governance mechanisms and ethics in financial reporting. The sole objective is to establish the extent to which governance styles minimizes unethical reporting practice. Stream: Economics and Management
Room 13	Sociolinguistic Consequences of Interferences of Social Dimensions Senel Simsek, Oriental Institute, Oxford University, Oxford, UK Overview: This paper challenges the conventional wisdom of the dichotomous social categories that prescribe binary oppositions of male versus female characteristics in Turkish as suggested in the early sociolinguistic work. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender	A Space of Her Own: When Writing and Survival Coincide Dr. Nectaria Karagiozis, Faculty of Education, University of Ottawa, Ottawa, Canada Overview: This paper looks at women's journal writing as a defence mechanism for coping with trauma and depression. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender
Room 14	The Impact of Foreign Direct Investment on Regional Growth and Disparities: Malaysian Experience Assoc Prof Hasnah Ali, Assoc Prof Dr Sanep Ahmad, School of Economic Studies Faculty of Economics and Business, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia, Bandar Baru Bangi, Malaysia Overview: The concentration of foreign direct investment in certain locations could prevent its positive effects from spreading. This paper argues that such investment is likely to increase Malaysia's regional disparities. Stream: Economics and Management	Business School Myths Dr. Rick Nason, Faculty of Management, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Canada Overview: This paper is a critical examination of some of the cornerstones of business school education. Stream: Economics and Management

TUES.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	13:35-14:05		14:10-14:40
Room 15	Party Comedians as Facilitators of Language Development in Nigeria Prof. Mabel Osakwe, Department of English and Literary Studies Faculty of Arts, Delta State University, Abraka, Nigeria Overview: This paper shows partying as developing human capital psycholinguistically and socio-politically. The art and style of the Nigeria party comedian has developed an acceptable lingua franca (Naija) for Nigeria's unity. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities		On Assessing Environmental Quality: The Need for a Holistic and Multidisciplinary Approach Prof Naima Chabbi-Chemrouk, Architecture and Environment Research Unit, Ecole Polytechnique d'Architecture et d'Urbanisme, Algiers, Algeria Overview: The paper will focus on the evaluation of environmental quality, its meaning and the tools used to assess it. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
GARDEN SESSION	Rom Harre
14:40-14:55	COFFEE BREAK
TUES.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 1	Regulation and Diversity: Addressing the Tensions within Health Professional Education – The Yorkshire Perspective Jacinta Elliott, Elliott Walker Consultancy Ltd, York, Dr Janet Hargreaves, School of Human and Health Sciences University of Huddersfield, Elizabeth Ann Walker, School of Human and Health Sciences The University of Huddersfield, Huddersfield, Dr Chris Dearnley, Division of Service Development & Improvement School of Health Studies University of Bradford, Bradford, Sunita Morris, Faculty of Health Leeds Metropolitan University, Leeds, Catherine Arnold, Faculty of Health and Wellbeing Sheffield Hallam University, Sheffield, Prof. Stuart Walker, School of Health Studies/Disability Office University of Bradford, YAHODPEN, Bradford, UK Overview: Yorkshire and Humber Opening Doors to Health Professional Education Network: approaches to the conflict between traditional assessment of Fitness to Practice and the impact of antidiscrimination legislation on student diversity. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences		Is it what you see or what you believe that matters? Using Photo Simulations to Explore Perceptions of Forest Management Dr. Jo Ann Beckwith, Beckwith Environmental Planning Pty Ltd, Australia, Sarah Clement, Beckwith Environmental Planning, Perth, Austria, Dr. Susan Moore, School of Environmental Science, Murdoch University, Australia Overview: Results of a survey of recreationalists' perceptions of forest management (e.g. thinning) in Perth, Australia and their implications for water resource management will be discussed. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Trusting Scientists, Trusting Science, Trusting Themselves Dr. Gillian Squirrell, School of Management, University of Bristol, Bristol, UK Overview: This paper explores trust between biomedical scientists and with public groups. The media frequently frames biomedical science as untrustworthy. How does this impact scientists and their communications? Can this change? Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences

TUES.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 2	HIV/AIDS in Japan: Contradictory Discourses, Troubling Results Pamela Runestad, Department of Anthropology, University of Hawaii, Honolulu, USA Overview: The HIV rate is increasing in Japan. Japanese MSM constitute the highest risk group, yet the media focus remains on both Japanese and foreign women. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Changing Attitudes towards the Holocaust Dr . Yehudit Koznizky-Gendler, Education, Zefat Academic College by the Bar Ilan University, Givat Avni, Israel Overview: Holocaust-changing attitudes over last 60 years in Israel. How the Jewish and Arab social cultural Ethos and Memory deal with the changes? From individual-to-Collective Event Jewish-Pan Israeli-International Israel-Germany rapprochement Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	The Oracle-Sphinx Model: The Development of Questioning and Answering Abilities Ph.D. Catalin Mamali, Department of Psychology, Loras College, Dubuque, USA Overview: The Oracle-Sphinx model approaches the questioning and answering processes across life-span and cultural contexts from an interdisciplinary perspective and identifies the major stages of questioning abilities Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	The Interface Between Theory-Language and Interviewer-Language in Social Research Using Mixed Methods: An Exploration of Identity in a Study of Public History in Canada Prof. Bryn Greer-Wooten, Institute for Social Research Faculties of Arts and Environmental Studies, York University, Toronto, Canada Overview: Mixed methods in social research are primarily based on methodological considerations. Theory language and informant language confound the problems of translations between competing designs. Analytically, transduction is a possible response. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Construct Validity of Agent-Based Simulation of Normative Behaviour Dr Maria Xenitidou, Dr Corinna Eisenbroich, Department of Sociology, University of Surrey, Guildford, UK Overview: Assessing the construct validity of agent-based simulations of normative behaviour with respect to social psychological theory. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods

TUES.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 3	Posttraumatic Stress Disorder, Neurotransmitter Dysregulation and Reset Degradation Theory Dr. Brock Kilbourne, El Camino Psychology Services, Oceanside, Samantha Kilbourne, Doctoral Program Forensic Psychology, Alliant International University, San Diego, USA Overview: PTSD research and treatment challenges current neurobiological formulations of PTSD. The present paper integrates the findings and proffers reset degradation theory to explain PTSD onset, development and chronicity. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	The Pacific Islands Families Study: Overview and Selected Findings Prof. Janis Paterson, Faculty of Health and Environmental Sciences, Auckland University of Technology, Auckland, New Zealand Overview: This presentation will provide an overview of the Pacific Islands Families Study, a longitudinal study of 1000 Pacific children and their families in New Zealand. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Examining the Relationship between Erotic Disruption during the Latency Period and the Use of Sexually Explicit Material, Online Sexual Behaviors, and Sexual Dysfunctions in Young Adulthood Sallie Hunt, California State University, Fresno, Fresno, Shane Kraus, Department of Psychology, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, USA Overview: Using Sigmund Freud's theoretical prism of latency, we sought to ascertain whether an absence of erotic arousal during middle childhood is fundamentally essential for healthy psychosexual development. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Erotic Disruption during Latency: Exploring Predictors of Sexual Behavior in Young Adulthood Sallie Hunt, California State University, Fresno, Fresno, Shane Kraus, Department of Psychology, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, USA Overview: In this paper, the authors sought to examine the relationship between erotic disruption during latency and sexual behavior in young adulthood. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Study Trials and Memory Awareness When Recognising Own-Race versus Other-Race Faces Dr Ira Konstantinou, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Richmond, the American International University in London, London, UK Overview: This paper will focus on the kinds of memory awareness accompanying own-race bias. The implications of the evidence for memory theory and for eye-witness testimony will be discussed. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences

TUES. PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 4	Urban Marginality: America's Cities and Neighborhoods in Transition Carol Camp Yeakey, Ph.D., Faculty of Arts & Sciences Interdisciplinary Program in Urban Studies, Washington University in St. Louis (USA), St. Louis, Eugene L. Anderson, Ph.D., Center for Educational Policy & Research, Kim C D'Abreu, M.P.H., Center for Educational Policy and Research, American Dental Education Association, Washington, Dr. David Urias, School of Education, Drexel University, Philadelphia, Dr. Judith Brooks-Buck, College of Liberal Arts & Sciences, Virginia State University, Petersburg, Rodney K. Hopson, Ph.D., Department of Foundations and Leadership School of Education, Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, USA, Gloria Gonzalez Overview: This colloquium analyzes key issues impacting America's cities and neighborhoods, and the intended and unintended consequences of these issues on the American metropolis. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law			Displaced Homelands and Conflicting Identities in the National Museum of Iran Ali Mozaffari, Architecture/Anthropology, University of Western Australia, Perth, Australia Overview: In this paper, I propose to examine ideological renditions of Iranian identity as represented in the National Museum of Iran. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Crises of Modernity: The Problems of Democratisation and Peace in South Asia Dr. H.M. Sanjeev Kumar, Department of Political Science, University of Allahabad, Allahabad, Dr. Preeti Sharma, Department of History and Indian Culture, Banasthali University, Tonk, India Overview: This paper looks at the democratisation process taking place in the countries of South Asia; where increased security instabilities seem to highlight an inverse relationship between democratisation and peace. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 5	The Meaning of Involvement: Working with Chinese Older People in the UK Dr. Chui Man Chau, Department of Social Work and Social Administration, The University of Hong Kong, Dr. Wai-kam Yu, Department of Social Work, Hong Kong Baptist University, Hong Kong Overview: This paper reflects on the process and findings of a participatory study involving Chinese older people in the UK; and examines the meaning of involvement from their perspectives. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Unveiling the Core of Cairo's Street Crisis: How an Educational System Is Generating Street Kids Nathan Bramsen, ROCKKids, ROCK International, Cairo, Egypt Overview: A closer look into how an educational system is sending children to the street. What factors have caused this crisis, and how to put an end to it. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Teacher Knowledge and Mathematics Curriculum Use Dr. Ok-Kyeong Kim, Department of Mathematics, Kalamazoo, Naphtalin Achubang Atanga, Western Michigan University, USA Overview: This paper describes an investigation on teacher knowledge and curriculum use. The results of the investigation reveal strong and weak aspects of teacher knowledge when using an elementary mathematics curriculum. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Teaching with e-Mentoring via Videoconferencing: Effects of Reform Oriented Professional Development on Teacher Beliefs and Practices Dr. Qing Li, Faculty of Education, University of Calgary, Calgary, Canada Overview: This study explores teachers' experience of a reform oriented professional development program focusing on teachers' adaptation of inquiry-based learning. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Family and Kindergarten Cooperation within the Framework of Children's Transition from Kindergarten to Primary School Prof. Maria Sakellariou, Department of Early Childhood Education, University of Ioannina, Ioannina, Irene Sivropoulou, Greece Overview: In this article we refer to the cooperation between University researchers, kindergarten teachers and parents to facilitate the normal passage of the children from the Kindergarten to Primary school. Stream: Education and Social Welfare

TUES.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 6	The Futures Studies Toolbox + iPod Touch: Digitally Enabled Futures Images for the Japanese University 2020 Project Dr. Michael Vallance, David L. Wright, Department of Media Architecture, Future University Hakodate, Hakodate, Japan Overview: Complex Systems students in Japan were challenged to communicate futures images of their university using a theory-based Futures Studies Toolbox and the multiple-media, portable iPod Touch. Stream: Media and Communications	Bridging the Interdisciplinary Gap: Team-Teaching an International Service Learning Course Jerald Swope, Journalism and Mass Communication, Patricia Siplon, Political Science, St. Michael's College, Colchester, USA Overview: What happens when a photojournalist and an activist political scientist team-teach an interdisciplinary service learning class on HIV/AIDS in Tanzania? The surprisingly different theoretical approaches create unexpected learning opportunities. Stream: Media and Communications	Taking an Interdisciplinary Approach to Answer a Health Policy Question Dr Bruce Minore, Centre for Rural and Northern Health Research Department of Sociology, Prof. Margaret Boone, Centre of Excellence for Children and Adolescents with Special Needs, Lakehead University, Thunder Bay, Canada Overview: Discussion of social, health and library scientists' involvement in a policy-directed study of mental health/primary care integration, commissioned by the Province of Ontario, Canada. Stream: Sociology and Geography	The Institutionalization of Social Work Profession in Contemporary China Dr. Wai-keung Chung, School of Social Sciences, Singapore Management University, Singapore, Singapore Overview: This paper focuses on the social processes behind the current social work development in China. I argue that the process has been shaped by path dependency and pre-existing institutional settings. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Empowering Women in the Workplace? Framework for the Analysis within Agri-Food Chains Muhaimina Said-Allsopp, Sustainability Research Institute School of Earth and Environment, University of Leeds, Leeds, UK Overview: Intensive women worker interviews provide the foundation for this framework which seeks to broaden Global Value Chain analysis and integrate within it, an analysis of the empowerment of women workers. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender

TUES.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 7	Using The Internet to Give Children A Voice: Experiences and Lessons Learned from the Kids' Life and Times Survey Dr Katrina Lloyd, School of Sociology, Social Policy and Social Work, Queen's University Belfast, Belfast, UK Overview: The experience of carrying out an Internet survey of children will be discussed along with the lessons learned for the future. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Triangulation and Mixed Method Research Design in Practice: The Malawi Case Study on the Interplay of State Policy, Family Structure and Land on Women and Children's Well-Being Dr Linda L. Semu, Sociology Department, McDaniel College, Westminster, USA Overview: Mixed method study that lends voice to subsistence farmers and acts as a best practice case study for researchers, students and practitioners of international development Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Hybrid Bodies, Hybrid Methods: Interdisciplinary Research on Heart Transplantation in Canada Dr. Jennifer Poole, School of Social Work, Ryerson University, Dr. Heather Ross, Cardiac Transplant Program, Toronto General Hospital, Dr. Patricia McKeever, Faculty of Nursing, University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada, Dr. Margrit Shildrick, Queen's University, Belfast, UK, Dr. Susan Abbey, Department of Psychiatry, University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada Overview: The hybrid bodies created through heart transplantation not only demand hybrid methods of inquiry but similarly innovative research teams. In this paper, we report on such a team in Canada. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Social Representation of Incapacity: Psycho-Cultural Analysis of the Israeli Political Discourse Dr. Mira Moshe, Sociology Department Mass Communication School, Ariel University Center of Samaria, Shoham, Israel Overview: This study deals with the social representation of incapacity in Israeli political culture by applying CDA (critical discourse analysis) to two outstanding cases of incapacity Stream: Media and Communications	Social Dialogue on Retirement in Poland: The Language of 'Flexicurity'? Agnieszka Aleksandra Piasna, Department of Sociology, University of Cambridge, Cambridge, UK Overview: The study of the way retirement transitions are communicated in the public sphere. What images shape retirement choices of baby-boomers? Analysis based on three important communication campaigns from Poland. Stream: Media and Communications

TUES.
PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 8	The Integrated Planning Strategy for Urbanization in China Wei Xiao, The Department of Real Estate and Construction, The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, China Overview: This paper seeks to examine the problems and relationship of urban and rural areas in urbanization of China and introduces the integrated planning strategy in China. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Justice Undone: The Trial of General Araki Sadao Alexander Blair, Department of Economics Business and Economics, Macquarie University, Macquarie University, Australia Overview: The 1946 Tokyo War Crimes trial of General Araki Sadao and its implications for prosecution of perpetrators of crimes against humanity. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	The Pivotal Challenges Shaping the Prospect for Development in Sub-Sahara Africa: An Interdisciplinary Approach Dominic Hakim Silvio, Interdisciplinary PhD Program, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Canada Overview: An interdisciplinary analysis into the challenges shaping the prospect for development in sub-Sahara Africa. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Broken Organizations Dr. Diane Huberman Arnold, Sprott School of Business, Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada Dr. Keith Arnold, Philosophy, University of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada Overview: Broken organizations exhibit low morale, high turnover rates, lack of personal responsibility or control, and no engagement. Their regulatory systems are at best a sham, at worst, inadequate. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Technonationalism vs Technoglobalism: A Case Study from India Saurabh Dutta Chowdhury, Terrorism and Nonproliferation Studies, Monterey Institute of International Studies, Monterey, USA Overview: This session investigates how the different perspectives of technoglobalism and technonationalism compete in the strategic arena. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 9	The Goals of Australia's National Syphilis Action Plan Are Based in Interdisciplinary Research Findings Assoc Prof Garrett Paul Prestage, 1. National Centre in HIV Epidemiology and Clinical Research 2. Australian Research Centre in Sex Health and Society, 1. University of New South Wales; 2. La Trobe University, Assoc Prof David Wilson, National Centre in HIV Epidemiology and Clinical Research, University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia Overview: We combined mathematical modeling with quantitative and qualitative social research to explore methods to reduce rates of syphilis among Australian gay men for Australia's public health response. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Natural Energy Resources Impact on Regional Inequalities: A Case Study of Iran Negar Zamanfar, Allame Tabatabaiee University, Mahmoud Jomehpour, Sociology Faculty, Allameh Tabataba'i University, Tehran, Iran (Islamic Republic of) Overview: This paper aims to find energy resources distribution and energy accessibility impact on poverty and regional inequalities in different regions of Iran. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Environmental Policy and the Alberta Oil Sands Development: A Study in Ecology, Economy and Environmental Sociology Prof. Allan E. Warnke, Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities, Vancouver Island University/Malaspina, Nanaimo, Canada Overview: An examination of the socio-economic and environmental effects of the largest non-conventional source of oil; and its implications for environment policy in Canada. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Privacy Challenges in Contemporary Social Web Dr. Peter Géczy, Social Intelligence Technologies Research Center for Service Research, Dr. Noriaki Izumi, Dr. Kôiti Hasida, National Institute of Advanced Industrial Science and Technology (AIST), Tokyo, Japan Overview: Interdisciplinary elucidation of privacy challenges arising from growing social orientation of web and contemporary technological enablers. Stream: Media and Communications

TUES.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 10	Ann Hamilton and the Poorly Executed Ideogram Dr. Christopher Braddock, School of Art & Design, Auckland University of Technology, Auckland, New Zealand Overview: Contemporary performance art analysed via anthropological notions of sympathy and mimesis in ritual Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities		Landscape and Identity in Contemporary South Asian Women Writers Margarida Martins, Language Center, Faculdade de Letras da Universidade de Lisboa, Lisbon, Portugal Overview: How landscape and space play an active role in identity formation in Kiran Desai's The Inheritance of Loss. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	The Future of the Humanities: Kierkegaard, Existentialism, and Identity Timothy Hall, Social Studies Department, The Franklin Academy, Wake Forest, USA Overview: For the humanities to have a future in postmodern times, scholars need to reexamine Kierkegaard's critique of theory and his understanding of the self. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	A Day in Hogarth's London Paula Rama Silva, English Department, Estoril Higher Institute for Hotel and Tourism Studies, Lisbon, Portugal Overview: Georgian London as described by Hogarth's "Four Times of the Day". A view on Londoners' spaces, lives and habits. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 11	The Influence of Personal Predispositions on Refugees' Resettlement Process Dr. Wai Hsien Cheah, Department of Speech Communication, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, Dr. Ajlina Karamehic-Muratovic, Missouri Institute of Mental Health, Dr. Hisako Matsuo, Alma Poljarevic, Saint Louis, USA Overview: This study examined the resettlement process of Bosnian refugees in Saint Louis, Missouri, USA. Stream: Media and Communications	Research on Disability in Thailand: Meta-Analysis and Qualitative Analysis Dr. Tavee Cheausuwantavee, Rehabilitation Science, Ratchasuda College, Mahidol University, Phutthamonthon, Thailand Overview: This is a research synthesis regarding disabilities in Thailand. The results have provided researchers and practitioners concern how rigorous and further research should be done. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Community Learning Process Empowerment for the Development of "One Tambon One Product" into the OTOP 5th Star Level: A Case Study of Bang Choa Cha Bamboo-Weaving Group Asst. Prof. Dr. Passawalee Nitikasetsoontorn, School of Communication Arts, Sukothai Thamathirat Open University, Bangkok, Thailand Overview: The research employed participatory action research as a method to empower the community learning process of Thai villagers to make their local craft get widely recognized as national product. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Conceptualising Mental Wellbeing from the Perspective of Chinese and Pakistani Communities in Scotland Karen Newbigging, Dr Manjit Bola, International School for Communities, Rights and Inclusion, University of Central Lancashire, Preston, UK Overview: This paper outlines the method and findings of research exploring conceptualisations of mental wellbeing amongst Chinese and Pakistani communities in Scotland, highlighting the major influences and differences in understanding. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Discourse Ethics and the Delphi Method Sarah Barter-Godfrey, School of Health and Social Development, Deakin University, Melbourne, Australia Overview: This paper re-reads the Delphi technique by first reviewing its tenets of generation-abstraction-consensus, and then aligning the Delphi process with the principles of Habermas' "discourse ethics." Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods

TUES. PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 12	The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly: Public-Private Partnership Experiences from Taiwan's Rail Projects Oliver F. Shyr, Department of Urban Planning, National Cheng Kung University, Tainan, Taiwan Overview: To evaluate existing Public-Private Partnership (PPP) projects and to propose new applicable package for future PPP practices in Taiwan Stream: Economics and Management	The Role of the Manager in the Twenty-First Century: Meeting Increasingly Complex and Diversified Workplace Needs through Social Organizational Support) Dr Brenda Scott-Ladd, Curtin Graduate School of Business, Prof Antonio Travaglione, Curtin Business School, Curtin University, Dr Chris Perryer, University of Western Australia, Mr. Justin Hancock, Curtin University, Dr Naomi Britten, J. P. Rebola, School of Management, Perth, Australia Overview: Increasing complexity and diversity challenges managers to adopt new approaches to providing social support to employees, for organisations to be employers of choice. Stream: Economics and Management	Empirical Analysis of Interest Rate Spread in Nigeria: Post Liberalization Analysis Muhammad Auwalu Haruna, Department of Economics, Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, Nigeria Overview: Despite banking sector reforms in Nigeria, financial intermediation is below expectations with a market feature exhibiting sticky interest rate spread. The work will try to investigate its determinants. Stream: Economics and Management	Bilateral Linkages with OECD and FDI Inflows in Leading Developing Countries Mumtaz Hussain Shah, Department of Economics, University of Leicester, Leicester, UK Overview: In this paper we investigate the effect of bilateral linkage factors on FDI inflows into leading developing countries. Stream: Economics and Management	Privatization, Regulation, and Economic Growth in Developing Countries: An Empirical Analysis Dr Saeed Moshiri, St. Thomas More College, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, Dr Abdella Abdou, Department of Economics, Brandon University, Brandon, Canada Overview: We examine the effect of privatization on economic growth in developing and transition economies. We show that privatization is neutral to growth, but competition and regulation contribute to growth. Stream: Economics and Management

TUES.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 13	Ethical Hedonism in the Virtual Reality World of “Second Life”: Nozick’s Experience Machine Redux? Jayme Nelson, Nursing Health Care Ethics, Luther College, Decorah, USA Overview: This presentation will explore opportunities for communal ethical development within the virtual reality setting of Second Life. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Reiterating the Importance of Values in Management Education Curriculum Soolakshna D Lukea-Bhiwajee, School of Sustainable Development & Tourism, University of Technology, Pointe Aux Sables, Mauritius Overview: Based on the thoughts of various authors, the article reiterates how the inclusion of values in management education curriculum will help future managers. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Integrating Evidence-Based Realist Evaluation in Human Services Dr. Mansoor Abul Fazl Kazi, School of Social Work, University at Buffalo (The State University of New York), Buffalo, USA Overview: This paper presents a new approach to evidence based practice - the use of realist evaluation to investigate what interventions work and in what contexts. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	The Participation Effect: An Experimental Investigation Dr. Francesca Bortolami, Department of Economics, Universidad Catolica del Norte, Antofagasta, Chile Overview: Does participating in a collective decision affect the levels of contributions provided? Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 14	Using Visual Action Methods in the Research Process Sue Serle, Faculty of the Built Environment, University of New South Wales, Susan Sherringham, Faculty of Design Architecture and Building, University of Technology Sydney, Sydney, Australia Overview: Visual action methods provide appropriate ways of promoting ‘safe’ environments, eliciting information, promoting discussion and facilitating consensus in group situations. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Exploratory Study of the Linkage between Science and Social Science in the Discovery of Knowledge Dr. Hailu Abatena, School of Social Work, Norfolk State University, Norfolk, USA Overview: The paper is designed to make comparative analysis of the sciences and social sciences focusing on their similarities and differences. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Localization and Legitimacy of International Organization(s) Bhavna Thakur, Centre for the Study of Law and Governance (CSLG), Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), New Delhi, India Overview: The paper primarily focuses on the transnational exclusion of the local communities by the international organization, which has caused legitimacy issues of these organizations. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Peers Inside the Black Box: Deciding Excellence Karen E Mow, Institute for Applied Ecology, University of Canberra, Canberra, Australia Overview: Peer reviewers reveal how excellence is determined inside the black box of research grant selection. Stream: Economics and Management

TUES.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 15		Questioning Caste Hegemony Through Dalit Kulapuranas: A Study of Jambapurana Seetaramulu Gurram, Department of English Literature, The English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad, India Overview: This paper deals with the study of Dalit Kulapuranas (narrative songs) as a tool to question the legitimacy of India's upper caste hegemony. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Self-Concept among Malaysian Students Zahari Ishak, Department of Educational Psychology and Counseling Faculty of Education, University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur, Petaling Jaya, Malaysia Overview: Students' self-concept forms an important part of their adjustment during schooling. Previous studies have shown the key role played by positive self-concept in student adjustment and academic achievement Stream: Education and Social Welfare	National Literature for National Integration among the Malaysian National Service Program Participants Dr. Fong Peng Chew, Department of Language & Literacy Faculty of Education, University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia Overview: Under the Malaysian National Service Program, Poetry anthology My Motherland (2005), has established a culture of understanding, thus fostering goodwill relations Stream: Education and Social Welfare

Sessions: Wednesday, 04 August

9:30-10:05	PLENARY SESSION - Patrick Baert, University of Cambridge, Cambridge, UK
10:10-11:15	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	10:10-10:40	10:45-11:15
Room 1	Public Involvement at the Design Stage of Primary Health Research: A Narrative Review of Case Examples Dr Jonathan Boote, Dr Wendy Baird, Research Design Service for Yorkshire and the Humber, Claire Beecroft, Health Economics and Decision Science, University of Sheffield, Sheffield, UK Overview: This paper presents a review of published examples of public involvement in primary health research design, synthesising the contributions made, as well as the tensions and facilitating strategies identified. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	The Effect of Third Way Style 'Social Development' on Women in Community Development Jennifer Erica Aimers, Research Office, Otago Polytechnic, Dunedin, New Zealand Overview: This presentation examines the effects of New Zealand's social development policies on women's organisations, showing how this approach marginalises women's contribution to community development activities. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender
Room 2	Competencies' Importance and Performance in Tourism Industry: An Application of the Importance Performance Analysis Model Bharti Gupta, Centre for Hospitality and Tourism Management, University of Jammu, Jammu, India Overview: The study finds importance of the identified competencies and their respective performance with the application of Importance Performance Analysis in the tourism industry. Stream: Economics and Management	Language and Neuro-Linguistic Programming: Using Language to Understand Human Conceptualization Profa. María del Carmen Guarddon Anelo, Departamento de Filologías Extranjeras y sus Lingüísticas, Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia, Madrid, Spain Overview: Neuro-Linguistic Programming and metaphor theories can help an individual identify and decondition potentially harmful perceptions of experiences. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 3	A Methodology of Edges: Culture and Science in Japanese and English John Christopher Foster, Faculty of Science and Engineering, Kagoshima University, Kagoshima, Japan Overview: By analyzing the language of cultural and scientific works in Japanese and English, the author hopes to suggest a methodology of studying 'truths' cross-culturally . Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	The Participatory Culture in Japanese Media Convergence Society: Fieldwork on COMITIA's Staff Rujirat Vinitphol, Cultural and Human Information Studies Graduate School of Interdisciplinary Information Studies, The University of Tokyo, Tokyo, Japan Overview: This paper illustrates the participatory culture of fan audiences in Japan by conducting fieldwork research on the 'COMITIA' Comic Event analyzing both physical and virtual spaces. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 4	The Fog of Protection: An Inquiry into Ambiguities in the Civilian Protection Regime Betsy Jose-Thota, Graduate School of Public and International Affairs, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, USA Overview: This paper discusses the historical sources for the current ambiguities in the civilian immunity norm. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Institutional Review Board Rules: Should One Size Fit all Disciplines? Dr. George R. La Noue, Departments of Political Science and Department of Public Policy, University of Maryland Baltimore Graduate School, Baltimore, Alexander A. Bush, Pepperdine Law School, Malibu, USA Overview: Institutional Review Boards have approval power over almost all funded and unfunded research that involves human subjects. As such they may engage in prior censorship which is legally objectionable. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	10:10-10:40	10:45-11:15
Room 5	Desire for Higher Education in First-Generation Hispanic College Students Dr. Tamara Olive, Department of Education, Sul Ross State University, Alpine, USA Overview: A phenomenological analysis of the desire for higher education among Hispanic first-generation college students who have committed to a terminal degree Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Ideology, Epistemology and Pedagogy: Barriers and Drivers to Education for Sustainability in Science Education Dr Michael Littledyke, School of Education, University of New England, Armidale, Australia, Dr Evangelos I Manolas, Department of Forestry and Management of the Environment and Natural Resources, Democritus University of Thrace, Orestiada, Greece Overview: The paper discusses how science education may support education for sustainability to inform understanding, values and appropriate action for sustainability. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 6	A Multi-Sited Interdisciplinary Study of West African Diaspora Engagement in Homeland Health Dr. Joyce Millen, Department of Anthropology, Willamette University, Salem, USA Overview: In the context of Africa's crisis in human resources for health, this interdisciplinary, multi-sited research examines disquieting and encouraging consequences of the ongoing exodus of Africa's nurses and doctors. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Music as Pedagogy Prof. Dianne McAdams Jones, Nursing, Provo, Marlene Bacon, Department of Nursing, Utah Valley University, Orem, USA Overview: Students use music while studying. They perceive it as a learning enhancement. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 7	Penetrate the Local Film's Potential by Social Network and Its Resource Yu-Yin Hsieh, Graduate Institute of Communications Management, Prof. Min-Ping Kang, Communications Management Department, Shih-Hsin University, Taipei, Taiwan Overview: The Hollywood majors distribution system continues creating output value. The co-operation between the Hollywood majors and local film-producers may help to achieve box office success. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Food Security Under Siege: Approach to Social and Geopolitical Implications of the Second Green Revolution Juan José Borrell, Grupo Interdisciplinario en Seguridad Alimentaria Centro de Estudios Interdisciplinarios, Universidad Nacional de Rosario, Rosario, Argentina Overview: Geopolitical factors interacting altogether along with the Second Green Revolution productive matrix poses complex challenges to food supply system and public policies. Stream: Sociology and Geography
Room 8	Social Networks and Control Risks of a Coopetition Relationship in the Logistics Services Cluster: A Case Study in an Emerging Market Yina Chai, CRET-LOG Research Laboratory in Management Science (Specialised in Logistics), University of the Mediterranean, Fan Yang, Interdisciplinary Research Center of Territory and Spatial Planning, Paul Cézanne University, Aix-en-Provence, France Overview: Discuss the positive impacts of social networks on control risks of coopetition relationship inside the cluster. Case study of a logistics service cluster in China. Stream: Economics and Management	The Reliability of Group Judgment: Some Remarks on the Measurement of Agreement among Experts Dr. Pawel Cabala, Department of Management Process, Cracow University of Economics, Krakow, Poland Overview: This analysis discusses what agreement among expert opinions means and how it should be measured when the same objects are judged using the same ordinal scale. Stream: Economics and Management

WED.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	10:10-10:40	10:45-11:15
Room 9	The Social Dimensions of Conservation Program Design Katie Moon, School of Earth & Environmental Science, James Cook University, Townsville, Australia Overview: An Australian case study reveals that conservation programs do not adequately account for the social dimensions of landholders, such as their personal circumstances, motivations, attitudes and preferred program incentives. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Making Sense of Animal Extermination: How Discourses and Social Practices Created the Reality for the War Against the “Aggressive” Wolf in 19th/20th Century Prussia/Germany Jost Wübbeke, Master of International Relations Department of Political Science, Freie Universität Berlin, Berlin, Germany Overview: The approach shows how the discourses of "anthropological war" and "ferocity" constituted the wolf as an "aggressive" animal in 19/20th century Prussia/Germany and thus gave way for its extermination. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences
Room 10		Indigenous Teacher Education Initiative: Shared Conceptualisation Leading to Social Justice and Social Capital in Remote Australian Aboriginal Communities Dr. Marguerite Maher, School of Education Faculty of Education Health and Science, Charles Darwin University, Darwin, Australia Overview: This paper discusses increased social capital resulting from an initiative in the Northern Territory of Australia which provides teacher education, in situ, to students in remote Aboriginal communities. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 11	Brides against Prejudices: New Representations of Race and Gender Relationships in Gurinder Chadha’s Transnational Film Bride and Prejudice (2001) Dr. Elena Oliete, Department of English Philology, University of Zaragoza, Zaragoza, Spain Overview: This paper aims at exploring the new trends in transnational cinema, more concretely, new styles in South Asian diasporic modes of filmmaking. Stream: Media and Communications	“Sex and the City”: How Romantic Comedy Found a Home in TV in the 21st Century Beatriz Oria, English Studies Department, University of Zaragoza (Spain), Zaragoza, Spain Overview: My paper analyses Sex and the City from a film studies perspective, arguing that its success may partly lie in its ability to fill certain gaps in contemporary romantic comedy. Stream: Media and Communications
Room 12	From the ‘Local’ to the ‘Global’ in Chinese Culture: Images and Reflections in Literature Prof. Sabaree Mitra, Centre for Chinese & South East Asian Studies School of Language, Literature & Culture Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, India Overview: The paper will analyze images and reflections in Chinese literature emerging in the last few decades, to explore the interaction between the 'local' and the 'global'. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Reapproaching Culture: Exploring Methods in Cultural Studies Dr. Yin C. Chuang, Graduate Institute of Taiwan Culture, Languages and Literature, Taiwan Normal University, Taipei, Taiwan Overview: I explore an approach to studies of 'culture making' and 'nation building' by merging frameworks of M. Somers, R. Wodak et al and J. Storey. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	11:30-12:00	12:05-12:35
Room 13	Deconstructing Personal-Professional Development in UK Clinical Psychology: Disciplining the Interdisciplinarity of Lived Experience Dr. Louise Goodbody, Prof. Jan Burns, Department of Applied Psychology, Canterbury Christ Church University, Tunbridge Wells, UK Overview: A qualitative research study and Foucauldian theoretical analysis of the disciplining role of psychological discourses about personal-professional development in perpetuating social power inequalities. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	The Destabilising Dynamics of Envy in Co-Mother Relationships Sallie Greenwood, School of Health, Waikato Institute of Technology, Hamilton, New Zealand Overview: This paper explores envy, real or imagined, as a powerful emotion that potentially disrupts co-mother arrangements. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 14	Effects of Early Household Material Deprivation on Child Well-Being at Age 4-6 Years in Rural Mexico Laura Josefina Valadez, University of Oxford, Oxford, UK Overview: Using Structural Equation Modelling, this paper examines the medium-term effects of household poverty on the well-being of children in rural Mexico. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Ready Set Parent! Evaluation of a Parenting Education Program in New York State Nicole M. Tomasello, Shraddha Prabhu, Mansoor Abul Fazl Kazi, School of Social Work, University at Buffalo (The State University of New York), Buffalo, USA Overview: The purpose of this paper is to present a real-time evaluation of a community-based parenting education program provided by Every Person Influences Children in Buffalo, New York. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 15	The Basic Causes of Terrorism in the Framework of Psychology and Politics Dr. Serpil Güdül, Department of International Relations Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Gazi University, Ankara, Turkey Overview: In this study I will focus on the basic causes of terrorism in the framework of two disciplines which are related to each other, psychology and political science Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
11:15-11:30	COFFEE BREAK
Room 1	Cultivando La Salud: Transtheoretical Model of Health Behavioral Change in Practice Ly Phan, Dr. Vincent Chen, Dr. Maria Fernandez, Health Promotion and Behavioral Sciences, University of Texas Health Science Center, Houston, USA Overview: This study examined the relationship between stages of health behavioral change and psychosocial constructs in the Transtheoretical Model. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioural Sciences	The Sociology of Risk and Uncertainty: Insight from Vilfredo Pareto's General Sociology Dr Alasdair Marshall, Division of Management School of Management, Southampton University, Southampton, UK Overview: This presentation considers how Vilfredo Pareto's general sociology can help us develop transdisciplinary forms of knowledge and think about 'risk' in a new light. Stream: Economics and Management
Room 2	Films as a Conceptual Tool in University-Level Teaching: Research and Practice Dr. Monica Baehr, Psychology, Mount Royal University, Calgary, Canada Overview: Recently completed research on using full-length feature films in undergraduate psychology teaching supports their effectiveness, for both practical and conceptual learning. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Parents Count Too: Linking Home Experiences with Children's Numeracy Performance Dr. Sheri-Lynn Skwarchuk, Faculty of Education, University of Winnipeg, Winnipeg, Dr. Jo-Anne LeFevre, Department of Psychology Institute of Cognitive Science, Carla Sowinski, Department of Psychology, Carleton University, Canada Overview: This study highlights the importance of

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	11:30-12:00	12:05-12:35
		preschoolers' home numeracy experiences (and the role parents play) in relation to children's mathematics development in school one year later. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 3	Ordinary and Profound: Drawing on Conversation Learning to Identify Innovative Practice in Higher Education Shane McIver, Berni Murphy, School of Health and Social Development, Deakin University, Melbourne, Australia Overview: Methodological exploration of a conversational learning model focused on ideas generation among Health Sciences academics. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Application of the Delphi Method to Construction Law Research Heap-Yih Chong, Department of Built Environment, University Tunku Abdul Rahman, Setapak, Rosli Mohamad Zin, Department of Structure and Materials, Universiti Teknologi Malaysia, Skudai, Malaysia Overview: This paper aims to address and promote the application of the Delphi method into the construction law research. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 4	Uniting the South African Nation: The Effect of Ethnic and National Identity on Support of World Cup 2010 Dr. Bob Heere, Department of Kinesiology and Health Education College of Education, University of Texas at Austin, Austin, Dr. Matthew Walker, University of Florida, Gainesville, USA Overview: We examined how South African citizens identify with their nation and their ethnic group, and consequently, how these identities effect their support for World Cup 2010 Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Public Private Partnerships: Between Law and Management Dr. Sieglinde E. Pommer, UC Hastings and Vienna University of Economics and Business, San Francisco, USA Overview: Evaluating public private partnerships in the United States and Europe, this presentation discusses new forms of interdisciplinary cooperation between law and management. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 5	Education in Food Security as a Public Policy Project on Crisis Contexts Dra. Liliana De Luise, Centro de Estudios Interdisciplinarios - CEI, Universidad Nacional de Rosario - Argentina, Rosario, Argentina Overview: Food security is an important issue for society. An educative project as a public policy should institutionalize this matter. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	The Use of Interdisciplinary, Interactive Computer-Based Learning for Improving the Quality of Life for the Elderly Dr. Lynn Tepper, Behavioral Science Department Health Science Campus, Columbia University, New York, USA Overview: How health science professionals can improve the quality of life of their older patients by incorporating psychosocial concepts of development into their care of elderly. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 6	The Tuy Cloister Markings: Inscriptions on the Road to Santiago Dr. Robert D. Taylor, Office of the Dean New College, Arizona State University, Phoenix, USA Overview: An introduction to a study of a series of wall markings at Tuy Cathedral in Galicia, Spain. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	A Way in the Wilderness: Using Critical Realism to Navigate Environmental Security's Methodological Terrain John Jackson Ewing, International Relations Department, Bond University, Gold Coast, Australia Overview: This paper applies elements of critical realist theory to contribute to the primary methodological divide of the environmental security subfield. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods

WED.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	11:30-12:00	12:05-12:35
Room 7		The Forensics If Necessary: Changing Patterns of Dealing with Mass Death Prof. Emeritus T-Joseph Scanlon, Emergency Communications Research Unit, Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada Overview: Studies of mass death show how large numbers of dead are dealt with has changed over time. They also show that at pandemic death and disaster death have many similarities. Stream: Sociology and Geography
Room 8	An Extended Epistemology: The Role of Cooperative Inquiry in Health Promotion Christina Kennedy, School of Health and Applied Social Science, Liverpool John Moores University, Liverpool, Rose Khatri, Prof Jane Springett, Dr Laura Porcellato, Liverpool John Moores University, UK Overview: Mothers of young families research their family feeding experiences – outcomes indicate that cooperative inquiry may be an effective health promotion activity for families in areas of multiple deprivation. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Conceptualizing the Link between Urban Environments, Gender, and Health Prof. Andrea Chircop, School of Nursing, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Canada Overview: This presentation reports findings that provide moral and scientific evidence for public policy change to facilitate health equity for low-income mothers living in urban environments. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences
Room 9	“Meaning” and “Truth” in the Political Communication: A Discourse Analysis of the “Be Confident in Thailand with Premier Abhisit” Programme Kesine Pratumswan, Department of Communication Arts Faculty of Management Science, Nakhon Pathom Rajabhat University, Nakhon Pathom, Thailand Overview: What is the “meaning” and the “truth” appearing in the “Be Confident in Thailand with Premier Abhisit” Programme? Stream: Media and Communications	But What Makes It Doctoral? Taking on the Traditionalists: Interdisciplinary, Practice-led Doctoral Research in the Creative Industries - A Case Study in Academic Politics, Research, Rigour and Relevance Dr. Christiaan Willems, Faculty of Arts, School of Creative Arts, University of Southern Queensland, Toowoomba, Australia Overview: This paper examines a Doctoral journey of interdisciplinary exploration, explication, examination...and exasperation, revealing academic/political inconsistencies and issues which challenged both the fundamental assumptions, and actuality of practice-led research. Stream: Media and Communications
Room 10	Changing Paradims in the Information Society: From Analysis and Synthesis to Systems Thinking Stanislas Bigirimana, Department of Philosophy, Heidelberg University, Heidelberg, Germany Overview: Analysis has established itself as a preferred method in scientific practice. The empirical residues left by the analytic approach can be better handled by a computer inspired systems approach. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioural Sciences	Complying with the Twelve-Month Probation Order: The Role of Procedural Justice and Social Capital Wing Hong Chui, Department of Social Work and Social Administration, The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong Overview: This paper examines the impact of probation supervision as one form of community sentence for offenders in Hong Kong. Stream: Education and Social Welfare

WED.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	11:30-12:00		12:05-12:35
Room 11	Child Replacement Theory as a Tool for Understanding Fertility Behavior among HIV-Infected Sub-Saharan Women Dr. Nancy Smee, School of Nursing, University of San Francisco, San Francisco, USA Overview: Theoretical context for the study of fertility in sub-Saharan HIV-infected women using Child Replacement Theory, offering partial explanation for what may be driving the reproductive choices of these women. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender	Female Managers and Earnings Management in High-Technology Firms Ilanit Gavious, Department of Business Administration Guilford Glazer School of Business and Management, Ben-Gurion University, Beer-Sheva, Israel Overview: This study aims to explore whether and how earnings management is affected by the presence of female managers on the board of directors. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender
Room 12	The Cultural Significance of Treasure Island: An Examination of the Simultaneous Rise in Journalistic Sensationalism and British Identity Toward Chinese Pirates in the English-Speaking World, 1879 - 1920 Rebecca Simon, History Department, California State University, Northridge, Westlake Village, USA Overview: This paper examines how the publication of Treasure Island caused a rise of sensationalist reports of piracy in American and British newspapers. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Sensing the City: Physical Experience in Melbourne's Laneways Rebecca Goodbourn, Melbourne Law School School of Social and Political Sciences, University of Melbourne, Melbourne, Australia Overview: My work examines sensory experience in the laneways of Melbourne's central business district. I explore how issues of regulation, policy and planning play out in everyday physical experiences. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 13	Cultured Resonance, Inverted Synergies and Getting Over Naomi Watts by Reclaiming Metacognitive Terra Firma: In Furtherance of a Grounded Theory of Mental Health Literacy Steve Kusan, Interdisciplinary School of Rural and Northern Health, Laurentian University, Sudbury, Canada Overview: This paper describes 'cultured resonance' and 'inverted synergy' as possible etiological pathways to mental health and mental health complication. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	The Powerful Influence of Learning Communities in Academic and Business Contexts Yang Yang, Prof. John Williamson, Faculty of Education, University of Tasmania, Launceston, Australia Overview: The study offers unique insights into how educational organisations operate as learning communities and, consequently, how they may be more effective in promoting workplace learning. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 14	Risk and Revelation: An Exploration of Perceived Differences in Online Versus Face-to-Face Interaction Christine Ella Slavik, Faculty of Professional Studies, University of the Fraser Valley, Abbotsford, Canada Overview: In this interactive workshop, attendees will explore the perceived differences in participation between students in online courses versus classroom-based experiences. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 15		Postcolonial Hong Kong Culture in the Age of China Prof Yiu-wai Chu, Humanities Programme, Hong Kong Baptist University, Hong Kong Overview: This paper focuses on whether Hong Kong can retain its special cultural role between China and the world as China itself becomes "more capitalist than Hong Kong." Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
12:35-13:35	LUNCH

WED.
PARALLEL SESSIONS
	13:35-14:05	14:10-14:40	14:45-15:15
Room 1
Room 2	Expert Testimony of the Battered Person's Syndrome in a Case of Duress: What Influence Do Defendant Gender and Sexual Orientation Have on Jury Decisions? Brenda Russell, Department of Applied Psychology, Pennsylvania State University, Berks, Reading, Laurie Ragatz, West Virginia University, Morgantown, Shane Kraus, Department of Psychology, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, USA Overview: This study examined the role of expert testimony of the battered person's syndrome, defendant gender and sexual orientation in a case of duress. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	The Form of a Message about Conflict, the Moral Description of Its Main Character, the Receiver's Presumptions and Their Influence on the Way It Is Perceived Magda Zena Sadurska, Psychology Department, Warsaw School of Social Sciences and Humanities, Warsaw, Poland Overview: Proposed paper is a summary of my PhD research on how the information about conflict is transmitted and its influence on receiver's attitudes. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	The Relationship between Childhood Abuse and Mood Disorders: The Effect of Gender Katrina Gurguis, St. Edward's University, Austin, Dr. George Gurguis, University of Texas Southwestern Medical School, Dallas, USA Overview: This is a study looking into the relationship between abuse and various mental disorders in different genders, specifically the relationship between mood disorders and abuse. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 3	Watch This Space: Working between Disciplines and Paradigms in the Scholarship of Organizational Gossip Dr. Kathryn Waddington, Interdisciplinary Studies in Professional Practice, City University London, London, UK Overview: A reflexive account of doing empirical research and scholarly activity into gossip in organizations and working in transitional spaces. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Is It Feasible to Evaluate the Impact of Public Involvement on Health Research? Findings from a Delphi Study Rosemary Barber, Sheffield Health and Social Care NHS Foundation Trust, Dr Jonathan Boote, Research Design Service for Yorkshire and the Humber, Prof Glenys Parry, Dr Cindy Cooper, School of Health and Related Research, University of Sheffield, Sheffield, Philippa Yeeles, UK Clinical Research Collaboration, London, UK Overview: This study investigated whether or not consensus could be reached on the feasibility of evaluating the impact of public involvement on health research Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	The Politics of the Environment: Australian Women's Activism in the Greens Party Yulia Maleta, Social Justice Social Change Research, University of Western Sydney, Sydney, Australia Overview: This paper considers the barriers and enablers facing Australian Greens women within political and everyday practices, whose ethical worldview, environmentalism and lobbying contributes towards a sustainable social and natural world. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	13:35-14:05	14:10-14:40	14:45-15:15
Room 4	The European Court of Human Rights and Domestic Violence Dr. Ronagh McQuigg, School of Law, Queen's University Belfast, Belfast, UK Overview: This paper will discuss the approach of the European Court of Human Rights to the issue of domestic violence and how this jurisprudence may develop. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	The Right to Adequate Housing in China: A Progressive Implementation Gengzhao Chen, Department of Real Estate and Construction, The University of Hong Kong, HONG KONG, China Overview: This paper examines the implementation of the right to adequate housing in China as well as its relationship with other human rights and domestic legislature reform. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Elements of an International Arbitration Culture Joshua D. H. Karton, Faculty of Law, Queen's University, Kingston, Canada Overview: Despite the importance of arbitration in international commercial dispute resolution, its cultural context remains under-analyzed. This presentation considers the cultural factors that shape the decisions of international arbitrators. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 5	Social (Im)Balance in Education Dr. Walkyria Goode, ESPAE – Graduate School of Management, ESPAE - ESPOL, Guido Caicedo, ESPAE – Graduate School of Management Facultad de Ingeniería en Electricidad y Computación Centro de Desarrollo de Emprendedores, ESPAE-ESPOL, Guayaquil, Ecuador Overview: A study of social media applied in graduate education. Results reveal an asymmetrical learning experience. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Iranian Middle School Students' Attitudes to and Management Strategies for Homework Dr. Naser Shirbagi, Nahid Vakili, Department of Education, University of Kurdistan, Sanandaj, Iran (Islamic Republic of) Overview: The present study used a survey methodology to relate family help and time spent on homework to homework attitudes and management strategies. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Teacher Thoughtfulness: Are We There Yet? Ainul Azmin Md Zamin, English Language Department Centre for Languages, International Islamic University Malaysia, Gombak, Malaysia Overview: The case studies examines the English language teachers' thinking skills with regards to their teaching practices Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 6	Shakespeare, Socratic Discourse, and Personal and Social Growth Brian Lighthill, The Institute of Education, Warwick University, Shipston-on-Stour, UK Overview: A workshop exploring methodologies devised over 4 years of Action Research with 11-14 year old students to develop personal and social development through vicarious exploration of selected Shakespearean stories. Stream: Education and Social Welfare		Creating a Conceptual Framework to Support Education for Sustainability in Early Childhood: Why Start Early? Dr Nadine McCrea, Rosalind Littlelyke, School of Education, University of New England, Armidale, Australia Overview: We believe that Education for Sustainability (EfS) must start with very young children, and therefore present a new conceptual framework that outlines EfS in early childhood education. Stream: Education and Social Welfare

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	13:35-14:05	14:10-14:40	14:45-15:15
Room 7	Caste and Social Emancipation through Retail Entrepreneurship Networks: An Ethnographic Exploration of the Nadar Caste in Southern India Dr. Jerome Joseph, Personnel and Industrial Relations, Patturaja Selvaraj, Personnel & Industrial Relations, Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad, Ahmedabad, India Overview: An ethnographic study of the Nadar caste in Southern India examines how the caste collectivity has achieved social emancipation through retail entrepreneurship networks. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Internationalizing an International Community College: In Texas! Prof Linda Cook, Department of Sociology, Dr. John Speer, Government Department, Houston Community College, Houston, USA Overview: Our presentation will focus on the challenges and opportunities of creating a Global Studies Program at a two-year institution. Stream: Sociology and Geography
Room 8	Humanities and Technology – Multiple Sources for New Forms of Knowledge Production? The Work Processes of the Interdisciplinary Research Training Group ‘Art and Technology’ Dr. Kerstin Stiewe, DFG Research Training Group ‘Art and Technology’, Technical University Hamburg-Harburg, Thomas von Borstel, Daniel Jarr, Katrin Klitzke, Christian Lechelt, Annett Mickel, Kerstin Schaefer, Mirjam Schubert, Julia Weiss, Stephan Zech, Hamburg, Germany Overview: The combination of five different disciplines in one productive and stimulating research training group renders new ways of communication as well as innovative methodological approaches necessary. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences
Room 9	Meltdown, Models, and Messages: Communicating in a Tragedy of the Commons Dr. James Sodt, Department of Communications, Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, USA Overview: Was the financial crisis of 2008 a Tragedy of the Commons? Were attempts at intervention effective? Stream: Media and Communications	The Application of the Communication Accommodation Theory to Virtual Communities Elena-Madalina Hordila - Vatamanescu, Andra - Dina Pana, Communication Studies, College of Communication and Public Relations, Bucuresti, Romania Overview: The paper is intended to test whether Howard Giles’ theory can be applied in virtual communities. Stream: Media and Communications	The Multimedia Technologies in Innovative High Educational Establishments: Developing Intercultural Communicative Competence and New Levels of Competitiveness Prof. Liudmila Anfimova, Translation Department Pedagogical Institute, Southern Federal University, Rostov-on-Don, Russian Federation Overview: The paper presents technologies aimed at the development of the competitiveness of high educational establishments and future specialists. Stream: Media and Communications

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	13:35-14:05	14:10-14:40	14:45-15:15
Room 10	Theoretical Concerns on the Law and Hegemony Dr. Jaime LLambías-Wolff, Department of Social Science Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies and Osgoode Law School (PH.D. Candidate), York University, Toronto, Canada Overview: Law is perceived as autonomous but is the outcome of a negotiation process that needs to be validated, disguises conflicts and develops a dialectical and fetishist identity Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	An Analysis of the Linguistic and other Cultural Challenges in International and Comparative Social Science Research Dr. David Orrick, Justice Studies and Sociology Department, Norwich University, Northfield, USA Overview: This paper is an examination of the linguistic and cultural challenges faced in the conduct of international and comparative social science research. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	The Implementation of Budget and Accounting Reforms in Indonesian Government Institutions Windraty Siallagan, School of Business University of New South Wales, Australian Defence Force Academy, Canberra, Australia Overview: The research investigates what factors have influenced the variation in the implementation of the budget and accounting reforms in Indonesian government institutions. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 11	Conversation as Research: Collecting Life Stories, Creating Places Olivia Hamilton, Department of Sociology, Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia Overview: An examination of the roles that conversation might play in conducting qualitative research in an urban environment, inspired by the researcher's experience of conducting fieldwork in Rome. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Stories of Fiction in Cultural Anthropological Research: Addressing Identity-Related Needs and Problems Dr. Antonia Loeschner, Munich, Germany Overview: I would like to present a new cultural anthropological method that makes it possible to address identity-related needs and problems through the analysis of stories of fiction. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Interdisciplinary Healthcare: Science, Paradigm Shift or Flawed Discourse? Prof Dawn Freshwater, School of Healthcare Faculty of Medicine and Health, Jane Cahill, Research Fellow, University of Leeds, Leeds, UK Overview: This paper uses a deconstructive approach to interrogate the nature of interdisciplinary healthcare as determined by dominant scientific and pragmatic discourses. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 12	Accommodating Migrants in the Post-Reform Urban China: The Perspective of the Chinese Hukou System Junhua Chen, Business Department The Faculty of Business and Economics, Dr. Fei Guo, Business Department, Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia Overview: From the perspective of the Chinese Hukou system, this paper examines three social groups (urban residents, permanent migrants and temporary migrants) and their housing choices in China's urban areas. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Excellence vs. Solidarity: Research Framework for South East Europe Sven Marcellic, Department of Sociology, University of Zadar, Zadar, Croatia Overview: This paper examines the position of social sciences in South East Europe, with a special focus on the "Ideas" part of the Seventh Framework Programme. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Property Tenure and Local Economic Development: Community Led Development in Johannesburg, South Africa Ashley Gunter, Geography and Environmental Science, Monash University South Africa, Johannesburg, South Africa Overview: Housing tenure has been criticised as not being a solution to poverty in poor communities. Yet having tenure can increase participation in local economic development. Stream: Sociology and Geography

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	13:35-14:05	14:10-14:40	14:45-15:15
Room 13	Social Media in the Work Place: Perceptions of Third Year Commerce Students Trevor Nesbit, Department of Accounting and Information Systems, University of Canterbury, Christchurch, New Zealand Overview: An analysis of the place of social media in the work place and the perceptions of 3rd year commerce students. Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences	Sustaining the Social or Simply the Technically Efficient? An Examination of the Social Impact on Sustainable Technology within the Home Phillipa Marsh, Department of the Built Environment, University of Nottingham, Nottingham, UK Overview: This paper examines the social context to sustainability, focusing on users' relationship with energy efficient technologies within housing, to consider comfort, acceptance and potential for adoption of sustainable practice. Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences	A Bridging the Gap: Methodological Model for Narrative Research Einav Segev, Department of Social Work, Sapir Academic College, Ben-Gurion University, Meitar, Israel Overview: The narrative identity development of young Israeli women after a backpacking trip was examined by a methodological model that includes data collection from different points in time in different contexts. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 14	Teaching Employable Skills to Special Education Youth: An Empowerment Approach Dr. Elvia R. Krajewski, School of Social Work, Prof. Peggy Wiencek, Applied Research Center Institute for the Study of Children, Families and Communities, Elizabeth Trapp, Shane Brady, School of Social Work, Pierre Rice Jr., Gear-Up Program Institute for the Study of Children, Families and Communities, Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, USA Overview: Researchers will present results of an evaluation of a pilot training program designed to develop employable skills to adolescents with special needs. Stream: Education and Social Welfare

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	13:35-14:05	14:10-14:40	14:45-15:15
Room 15	Culture, Industrialisation and Multiple Domains of Employees' Job Satisfaction: A Case for HR Strategy Redesign in India Thomas Lange, The Business School, Bournemouth University, Bournemouth, UK Overview: This paper explores the link between cultural behavioural traits, the potential effect of industrialisation and multiple domains of job satisfaction. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioural Sciences	For Sale: 7107 Islands. The Impact of Cosmopolitanism on Philippine Tourism Raymund Victor Vitorio, Department of English and Comparative Literature College of Arts and Letters, University of the Philippines Diliman, Quezon City, Philippines Overview: An discourse analytic exploration of how government-sanctioned tourism strategies of the Philippines have been customised to accommodate cosmopolitan frameworks. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Cinema and the Urban Cultural Network in South India Prof. Hariprasad Athanickal, Department of Film Studies and Visual Communication, English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad, Hyderabad, India Overview: This paper traces the urban transformation of Chennai from a colonial port city entrenched within a trade network to a modern city by conceptualising the production of south Indian cinema Stream: Sociology and Geography
GARDEN SESSION	Patrick Baert
15:15-15:30	COFFEE BREAK

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 1	Strategic and Behavioral Innovativeness: Does it Matter? Dr. Mohd Faiz Hilmi, Management Section, School of Distance Education, Gelugor, Prof. T. Ramayah, Operations Management Section, School of Management, Universiti Sains Malaysia, Georgetown, Yanti Mustapha, Department of Business Management, UiTM Kedah, Merbuk, Malaysia Overview: This study focused on the less explored small and medium enterprise innovativeness in an Asian context and probes the relationship of their innovativeness practices and organizational performance in Malaysia. Stream: Economics and Management	Green NPOs: An Economic Analysis Prof. Israel Luski, Department of Economics, Ben-Gurion university, Yehudit Givon, Achva College, Beer-Sheva, Israel Overview: This research assesses methods and activities of green NPOs in order to propose better ways of action such that a better environment can be achieved for all of us. Stream: Economics and Management	Elective Affinities: Parallels in the History of Economics and Chemistry Dr Charles Gomersall, Department of Economics and Business, Luther College, Decorah, USA Overview: Goethe's novel "Elective Affinities" is the focus of an exploration of social order as interpreted by economists and chemists. Stream: Economics and Management	Accounting Ethics: An Interdisciplinary Approach Dr. Richard Cummings, Department of Accounting, University of Wisconsin - Whitewater, Whitewater, Dr. Peter Longo, Department of Political Science, University of Nebraska-Kearney, Kearney, Dr. Jean Rioux, Department of Philosophy, Benedictine College, Atchison, USA Overview: Authors from accounting, political science, and philosophy provide an interdisciplinary response to the ethics of tax policy compliance. Stream: Economics and Management
Room 2	Caring, Quality of Life and Service Provision: A Perspective Mr Derek Skea, Department of Psychology and Counselling School of Behavioral Sciences, University of Huddersfield, Huddersfield, UK Overview: How Quality of Life and Care is conceptualized in highly complex care environments and the need to appreciate constructionist elements alongside empirical measurement for a complete portrayal of the entity. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Ancestral Grave Ritual in Contemporary Hong Kong: Constructing Personal Relationship through Ritual Steve Wai Lung Cheung, Department of Sociology, The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, Hong Kong Overview: This paper takes an actor's perspective and examines how people construct and maintain social relationship through ritual. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	New Historical Novel in Mexico: Llanto novelas imposibles by Carmen Boullosa Dr. Iliana Underwood-Holbrook, The Department of Modern Languages, Cultures and Literatures, California State University, East Bay, Hayward, USA Overview: Boullosa endeavors to fight forces opposing a heterogeneous discourse in Mexican history. It explores how history culture, and identity can be constructed into historiography. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	The Iconography of Sati: An Archaeological Study of Sati Memorial Pillars of Central India Dr Ameeta Singh, Madhya Pradesh Higher Education Department Sarojini Naidu Government Girls College, Barkatuallah university Bhopal, Bhopal, Rashmi Joshi, India Overview: This article is based on my extensive field work in rural areas of central India documenting archaeological records pertaining to India's sati custom. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 3	Valignano and Aristotelian Missionary Training at the Early Globalization Age in Orient Rui Manuel Andrade Coimbra Santos Gonçalves, Santarém, Portugal Overview: We can view in the Valignano's missionary methods in Orient the witness of his Aristotelian training got in his native Italian and Neapolitan colleges Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Envisioning the Declarative Power of Tourism: The Call for Postdisciplinary Outlooks Prof Keith Hollinshead, Division of Tourism Studies The Faculty of Education and Sport, The University of Bedfordshire, Luton and Bedford, UK Overview: All sorts of peoples and places are differentially declared or fantasised through tourism, yet (within Tourism Studies) the level of culturally-responsive and contextually-sentient knowhow about this inscriptive agency is immoderate. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Bureaucracy, Community and Reform: Case Study of the National Program for Community Empowerment (PNPM)-Urban in Surabaya, Indonesia Sulikah Asmorowati, School of Philosophy, Anthropology & Social Inquiry, Faculty of Arts, The University of Melbourne, Melbourne, Australia Overview: This presentation aims to understand the nature of the relationship between bureaucratic reform and community development strategies/policies in urban and rural areas in Indonesia Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Spirituality as a Mediating Factor in Black Families Beliefs and Experiences of Health and Wellbeing Dr. Bertha Ochieng, School of Health Studies, University of Bradford, Bradford, UK Overview: My presentation critically examines the influence of spiritual beliefs on Black families' experiences of health and wellbeing. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 4	Incest - Best Left in the Past? The Historical Development of the Offence and Its Form Today James Roffee, School of Law, University of Leicester, Leicester, UK Overview: An analysis and critique of familial sexual offences using a law-in-context and legal history methodology Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law			Victims of Doubled-Edged Violence: A Socio-Political Study of Tribal-Rural Folks Living in the Forest Tract of Eastern India Dr. Gouri Sankar Banerjee, Department of History, Syamsundar College, affiliated to The University of Burdwan, Burdwan, India Overview: The study is ready to unveil the saga of distressed tribal-folks living in the forest tract of Eastern India who are suffering from Maoist-State warfare. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 5	Exploring Female Spiritualities in the Arising Theravada Buddhist meditation Groups in Hong Kong Ngar-sze Lau, Department of Social Sciences Centre for Religious and Spirituality Education, The Hong Kong Institute of Education, Hong Kong Overview: Spiritual lives including subjective experiences, identities changes and encountered struggles of female practitioners in the arising Theravada Buddhist meditation groups in Hong Kong will be researched with qualitative approaches. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Media Representations: Encoded Coverage in Canada of U.S. Health Care Reform Shelley Aylesworth-Spink, Cultural Studies, Faculty of Arts & Science, Queen's University, Kingston, Canada Overview: This paper analyzes Canadian media coverage of U.S. health reform through cultural studies theories of power and ideology, exploring encoding by this ideological state apparatus. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	The Formation of Non-state Normative Orders and Rituals of Pilgrimage Alireza Hassanzadeh, Excellent Cluster of Normative Orders, Goethe University, Frankfurt, Somayeh Karimi, Department of Philosophy and Ethnology Cluster of Formation of Normative Orders, Goethe University, Frankfurt am Main, Frankfurt am Main, Germany Overview: This article makes an effort to show the role of traditional rituals in relation to the form of non-state normative orders . Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Social Science Methods: Quantitative Social Science Methods, Surveys, Quantification, Statistical Modelling, Quantitative Analysis Dr. Tahseen Bilgrami, University Grants Commission Academic Staff College, Maulana Azad National University, Hyderabad, India Overview: The aim of this paper is to reveal the achievement and progress of research. This paper reviews the literature of research output in social science thus making of research productive & exploring. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 6	Young University Tutors' Motivation and Job Satisfaction within a Temporary Appointment Status Context in Greece Maria Kaparou, Institute of Education, Warwick University, Coventry, UK, Maria Panta, Faculty of Business Administration Department of Logistics Management, Lefki Papacharalambous, Giorgos Kaimakamis, Department of Logistics Management Faculty of Business Administration, Technological Education Institute, Chalkida, Greece Overview: This study's main objectives are to investigate the motivating factors for young university tutors to work effectively and to discover whether the de-motivating factors have an influence on their satisfaction. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	"It's not about Food!": Peer Facilitation for Eating Issues Dr. Kathryn Weaver, Faculty of Nursing, University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, Canada Overview: Benefits and implications of an interdisciplinary peer-facilitated campus eating disorder project integrating theory, research and clinical practice are discussed. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Educators' Usage of Disciplinary Actions as Alternatives to Corporal Punishment: A South African Experience Prof. David Phathabantu Ngidi, Department of Curriculum and Instructional Studies Faculty of Education, University of Zululand, Empangeni, South Africa Overview: This research paper is about educators' usage of some disciplinary actions as alternatives to corporal punishment from a South African perspective. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Factors Affecting Demand for Private Tutoring in Academic Subjects: Results from the Iranian Context Dr. Naser Shirbagi, Department of Education, University of Kurdistan, Sanandaj, Iran (Islamic Republic of) Overview: This research contributes to the development of theory about role of private tutoring by providing a description of the extent of private tuition and examining attitudes influencing participation the system. Stream: Education and Social Welfare

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 7	The Ties That Bind: Distinction, Recognition and the Relational Dr Mark Murphy, Faculty of Education and Children's Services, University of Chester, Chester, UK Overview: The purpose of the paper is to suggest ways to develop a more expansive relational geography in the social sciences, by combining the insights of Pierre Bourdieu and Axel Honneth. Stream: Sociology and Geography		Understanding Attrition in Domestic Violence Cases Maggie Bailey, Faculty of Social and Communication Studies, Chester, UK Overview: This paper looks to understand attrition in domestic violence cases using a Foucauldian analysis/framework to establish the efficacy of multi-agency, collaborative approaches. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Child Care Arrangements in Urban China: What Are the Differences between Different Economic Groups? Yanxia Zhang, Asia Research Institute, National University of Singapore, Singapore, Singapore Overview: This paper examines the differences in child care arrangements between different economic groups in urban China and explores the implications for disadvantaged children's well-being. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 8	The Sustainable Paddy Farming Practices in West Malaysia Zakirah Othman, Department of Management & Technology, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Changlun, Malaysia Overview: This paper discusses the current practices of paddy farming in West Malaysia, it includes sustainable issues focusing in organic farming. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	A Social-Spatial Approach to Ecological Governance Dr. Mary-Ellen Tyler, Dr. Michael Quinn, Faculty of Environmental Design, The University of Calgary, Calgary, Canada Overview: The social-spatial dimensions of ecological infrastructure and an interdisciplinary framework for resilience assessment and adaptive ecological governance are presented in a regional land use planning context in Western Canada Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Designing a Campus for African-American Females: The National Training School for Women and Girls 1907 – 1964 and the Making of a D.C. Neighborhood Ms. R.R.S. Stewart, Departments of Architectural History and Urban and Environmental Planning School of Architecture, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, USA Overview: Watts Branch is a Historic African American settlement area in Northeast Washington, D.C. The name "Watts Branch" refers both to the community and to the stream that runs through it. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Constructing Feminine Sexuality in the Visual Arts: Erotic Depictions in South Indian Temple Sculptures Dr. Preeti Sharma, Department of History and Indian Culture, Banasthali Vidyapith, Tonk, India Overview: The paper "deconstructs" feminine sexuality represented artistically as art and shows how art furnishes interpretive layers to the ways in which gender relations may be mapped out. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 9	An Analysis of Factors Associated with non Residential Fathering among African American Men: Factors Associated with Frequency of Parent-child Contact Dr. Carl E. Bentelspacher, Department of Social Work, Dr. Lori Ann Campbell, Department of Sociology & Criminal Justice Studies, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, U.S.A., Edwardsville, USA Overview: Factors associated with active parenting by non-residential African American men are analyzed, with implications for enhancing parenting practices Stream: Sociology and Geography	Organisational Change as a Vehicle for Systemic Organisational Abuse: The Case of Senior Nurse Managers Working within the New South Wales Health Care System Dr. Marilyn Orrock, Turramurra, Prof. Jocalyn Lawler, Camperdown, Australia Overview: This paper reports on systemic organisational abuse within the New South Wales health care system. Stream: Sociology and Geography	The Leadership-Followership Dynamic: Making the Choice to Follow Dr. Raymond Cox, Department of Public Administration and Urban Studies, University of Akron, Akron, USA Overview: This study explores leadership perspectives: Leaders are searching for talent to resolve problems, Followers choosing to accept the request for help from “leaders”. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Castles of the Mediterranean Sea: Island-Castles and People from a Sociological Viewpoint Güner Doğan, Department of History, Hacettepe University, Ankara, Turkey Overview: This paper reflections on the sociological relationship between island-castles and people with the help of documents from Ottoman Archives and English and French travel books. Stream: Sociology and Geography
Room 10	Mathematics Teacher Educators’ Account of Challenges in Preparing Pre-Service Multilingual Mathematics Teachers Anthony A. Essien, School of Education, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa Overview: This study reports on how lecturers deal with the complexity of teaching pre-service multilingual mathematics students and by so doing, preparing them to also teach mathematics in multilingual mathematics classrooms Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Framing First-Nations Education Policy: Toward Constructing a Coherent Conceptual “Place to Stand” Dr. Jerald Paquette, Faculty of Education, The University of Western Ontario, London, Dr. Gerald Fallon, College of Education, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, Canada Overview: This paper addresses issues of purpose and paradigm in aboriginal education. Only such paradigmatic grounding can provide a conceptual “place to stand” for critical analysis of aboriginal education in Canada. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Understanding and Nurturing Creativity in Design Education: A Study of Newspaper Perspective in Hong Kong Yi Lin Wong, Prof. Kin Wai Michael Siu, School of Design, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Hong Kong Overview: Understanding and nurturing creativity in design education in Hong Kong, from the perspectives of newspaper, literature and school curriculum. Stream: Education and Social Welfare

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 11		The Role of Corporate Entrepreneurship in Internationalization of Small and Medium Enterprises Dr Shankar Chelliah, International Business, Universiti Sains Malaysia, Minden, Malaysia Overview: This paper explains the relationship between corporate entrepreneurship and internationalization among Small and Medium Enterprises in the manufacturing sector. Stream: Economics and Management	Engaging Multidisciplinary University Students in “Triple Bottom Line” Reporting: Using Global Reporting Initiative Metrics Inside the Classroom Dr. Elizabeth Gingerich, College of Business Administration, Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, USA Overview: Case study of multidisciplinary students partnering with an established corporation to jointly prepare an organizational stakeholder report pursuant to Global Reporting Initiative G3 metrics. Stream: Economics and Management	Evolving Business Models in Clinical Medicine Dr. Clay Boyd, Clinical Urology, Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center, New Orleans, USA Overview: Problems due to changes in health care are not unique, and mirror transitions seen in traditional growth cycles of nearly every industry. Stream: Economics and Management
Room 12	‘Translated’ Identities: Cross-Cultural Psychology Mariangela Marcello, Vitória, Brazil Overview: Human beings are able to modify their behaviours based on learning. Both people who host and people who migrate ‘translate’ and negotiate their identities in the new contemporary cultural exchanges. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Becoming a Second Wife in Polygamous Marriage in Indonesia: Decision Making and Influential Factors Mira Ariyani, Department of Psychology, State University of Jakarta, Jakarta Timur, Indonesia Overview: This study was concerned with how women explained their process in deciding to be the second wives in polygamous marriage in Indonesia and the factors influencing their decision. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Developing Leadership through Coaching: Case Study of Cell Heads at the Cement Thai (Kang Koi) Plant, Thailand Wichai Utsahajit, Juthamas Kaewpijit, School of Human Resource Development, National Institute of Development Administration, Bangkok, Thailand Overview: This study's main objective is to explore how leadership skills can be developed through a coaching program. Seventeen subjects were selected to participate in the study. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	The Drug Use Screening Inventory-Revised: A Systematic Review Dr. Zach Sneed, Dr. Kenneth Smith, Rehabilitation, Social Work & Addictions, University of North Texas, Denton, USA Overview: This session will describe the results of a systematic review of the Drug Use Screening Inventory-Revised (DUSI-R) tool, a useful inventory for clinical and research efforts. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 13	How Homelessness Compromises the Exercise of the Rights of Citizenship in Australia Dr. Emily Schindeler, School of Justice Studies, Queensland University of Technology, Brisbane, Australia Overview: This paper presents an analysis of the Australian legal, policy and administrative frameworks and dominant rationalities as they impact on the rights of the homeless to the entitlements of citizenship. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Toying with Safety: A Regulatory and Ethical Failure of Governments and Business Dr. Sharlene A. McEvoy, Charles F. Dolan School of Business, Fairfield University, Fairfield, USA Overview: In recent years, the United States toy industry was jolted by the recall of products made in China containing lead paint. This paper addresses the legal and ethical issues. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Users' Meaning in Interpersonal and Technology Mediated Information Need Specification Dr. Kyunghye Yoon, Information Science Program, Computer Science Department, State University of New York at Oswego, Oswego, USA Overview: This paper discusses the notion of topic and comment as the two necessary dimensions of linguistic meaning using an empirical study of information seeking of a user. Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences	The Religion of Mafia Boss Bernardo Provenzano: An Interdisciplinary Approach to the Study of Religion in the Cultural Dimension of Cosa Nostra. Rossella Merlino, Department of Modern Languages Centre for Translation and Intercultural Studies, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, UK Overview: This paper addresses the symbolic religious behavior and language utilized by Mafia boss Bernardo Provenzano to reshape the internal structure of Cosa Nostra after a decade of internal conflicts. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 14	The Lack of Ethics Training for Educators: Should Ethics Be Taught to Students or Educators? Nkosinathi Owen Sotshangane, Directorate of Research Development Research Resource Centre, Walter Sisulu University, Mthatha, South Africa Overview: This paper will guide and prescribe how students and educators ought to be educated, regarding ethics, in South Africa. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	African Women's Education and Empowerment: Case Studies of Nigerian Women Resident in Egypt Dr. Dolapo Adeniji-Neill, Department of Curriculum and Instruction School of Education, Adelphi University, Garden City, USA Overview: The purpose of this study is to identify and examine the changing roles of Nigerian women: in the family, educational attainment and society. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender	Gender, Violence and Social Inclusion Dr Marion Frere, McCaughey Centre School of Population Health, University of Melbourne, Melbourne, Australia Overview: This paper will examine the relationship between the "everyday" nature of gendered violence and contemporary ideals of community and social inclusivity. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender	Feminist Responses towards Fundamentalisms and Neo-Liberalism Dr. Kaberi Gayen, Department of Mass Communication and Journalism, University of Dhaka, Dhaka, Bangladesh, Dr. Robert Raeside, Applied Statistics, Edinburgh Napier University, Edinburgh, UK Overview: This paper explores the feminist responses towards fundamentalism(s) and the 'triumph of invested capital' in the neo-liberalism era, in both Eastern and Western Perspective. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender

WED.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10	17:15-17:45
Room 15	Challenges and Potentials of a Multilateral Legal and Institutional Framework for Integrated Transboundary Water Resources Management at the Eastern Himalayan River Basin Level Md. Jakerul Abedin, Macquarie Law School, Macquarie University and Ministry of Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs, Bangladesh, Sydney, Australia Overview: This paper argues a new potential method for the Ganges Brahmaputra-Meghna river basin mangement in line with the integrated approach. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	How Far Does Emotional Intelligence Account for Employee Engagement in Malaysian Public Services? A Study into the Universality of Emotional Intelligence Mai Sumiyati Ishak, Faculty of Cognitive Sciences and Human Development, Universiti Malaysia Sarawak, Kota Samarahan, Malaysia Overview: Investigation in the universality of EQ in employee engagement is extended to a Malaysian public service. EQ is found to be instrumental in extrinsic (not intrinsic) factors of employee engagement. Stream: Economics and Management	To Which Eurasia Does Turkey Belong? A Comparison between Three Geopolitical Visions of Turkish Eurasian Regional Identity Ebru Eren, International Relations Department College of Administrative Sciences and Economics, Koc University, Istanbul, Turkey Overview: This study aims to examine comparatively the three ideological versions of the newly emerging Eurasian identity in post-Cold War Turkey. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law

Sessions: Thursday, 05 August

9:30-10:05	PLENARY SPEAKER - The Energy Cultures Team, Otago University, New Zealand
10:05-11:10	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	10:05-10:35	10:40-11:10
Room 1	Re-Engaging Disadvantaged Youth through Science: Developing a Framework of Practice Kimberley Luanne Wilson, School of Education School of Indigenous Australian Studies, Dr David Lake, School of Education, James Cook University, Townsville, Australia Overview: The aim of this research project is to build a framework for guiding scientific teaching practice in the context of working with students with complex needs and diverse backgrounds. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Children Engaging with the Nature of Mathematics: The Case of Zeno's Paradox Dr. Paul Betts, Faculty of Education, University of Winnipeg, Winnipeg, Canada Overview: Stories from the history of mathematics with philosophical import, such as Zeno's paradox, can generate learning contexts that occasion a greater appreciation of mathematics by school aged children. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 2	The Role of Private Actors in Promoting Corporate Governance: Implications of the Landmark James Hardie Case for Non-Executive Directors in Australia Dr. S M Solaiman, Faculty of Law, University of Wollongong, Wollongong, Australia Overview: Corporate governance is an essential concerns of socio-economic development, in which directors' duties are an important consideration. This paper aims to address the latest development of such duties in Australia. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	When Societies Collide: An Immigration Model for the 21st Century Dr. Patricia Strait, Human Resource Management, University of Richmond, Richmond, USA Overview: An article which synthesizes diverse sources of information regarding immigration, and suggests a new immigration model for the 21st century. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 3	How Mobile Communication Disconnects Social Identity Dr. Terri Toles Patkin, Communication Department, Eastern Connecticut State University, Willimantic, USA Overview: Cell phone use in public constructs social meanings ranging from rudeness to high status to addiction. Stream: Media and Communications	Newspaper Coverage of Climate Change: Problems and Anomalies Dr Mary Debrett, Media Studies Program School of Communication, Arts and Critical Enquiry Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, La Trobe University, Melbourne, Australia Overview: Drawing on recent frame analysis research, this paper discusses the problems journalists face in reporting on climate change. Stream: Media and Communications
Room 4	Carmen, Flamenco and Spanish Cultural Identity Dr. Anna Hamling, Department of Culture and Language Studies, University of New Brunswick Fredericton, Fredericton, Canada Overview: Exploring the methodology used by Saura in re-defining Carmen as a Spanish Gypsy through flamenco dance. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	What is Classic According to T.S. Eliot and H. G. Gadamer Dr. Tansu Acik, (AÜ DTCF) Greek Language and Literature Faculty of Letters, University of Ankara, Ankara, Turkey Overview: The works of T.S. Eliot and H. G. Gadamer related to the notion of classic would be scrutinized with the help of most recent researches upon this topic. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 5	Residential Satisfaction with Housing in the Malaysian Context Zikri Muhammad, Faculty of Social Science and Humanities, Prof. Katiman Rostam, School of Social Development and Environmental Studies Faculty of Social Science and Humanities, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia, Bangi, Malaysia Overview: This study examine the test of differences between the eight dimensions of residential satisfaction with demographic variables and general housing determinants. Stream: Economics and Management	The Antecedents of Empowerment of the Line Managers in Human Resource Activities: An Empirical Study in Malaysian Large Firms Dr. Yusliza Mohd.Yusoff, International Business School of Management, Universiti Sains Malaysia, Minden, Malaysia Overview: This study examined the relationship between antecedents and empowerment of the line managers in human resource activities Stream: Economics and Management

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	10:05-10:35	10:40-11:10
Room 6	Some Characteristics of Adolescent Gamblers in Croatia Dora Dodig, Neven Ricijas, Department for Behavioral Disorders, University of Zagreb, Zagreb, Croatia Overview: The authors will present the results of a pilot-study on gambling habits, attitudes toward gambling and correlation of gambling and other risk and antisocial behavior with some personality traits. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Memory for Event Content in Autobiographical Accounts: An Alternative Approach to Measuring the Existence of Pleasant Memory Biases in Autobiographical Memory Maryam Imad Bokhari, Department of Social Science and Mathematics, Lahore University of Management Sciences, Lahore, Pakistan Overview: This paper would attempt to define event memory content in autobiographical experiences and then study it, something that has been previously ignored in autobiographical memory research especially for emotions. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 7
Room 8	Public Toilets and the Embodiment of Abjection Dr Peter Cheng-Chong Wu, Department of Geography, National Taiwan Normal University, Taipei, Taiwan Overview: This papers attempts to provide a geographical explanation of the psychological dynamics of excretion while looking for the possibility of a psychoanalytical account of the toilet space. Stream: Sociology and Geography	“Co-agent of the Millennium”: City Planning and Christian Eschatology in North America, 1890-1920 Dr. Phillip Gordon Mackintosh, Geography, Brock University, St. Catharines, Canada, Dr. Clyde Revere Forsberg, English, Oxford College, Aletheia University, Danshui, Taiwan Overview: North American city planners in the early twentieth century, in varying degrees, demonstrated their susceptibility to evangelical beliefs in the feasibility of creating the Kingdom of God on earth. Stream: Sociology and Geography
Room 9	A New Theory of the Profane: Power, Politics and Identity Robbie Duschinsky, Politics, Psychology, Sociology and International Studies, Cambridge University, Cambridge, UK Overview: The profane is not simply a residual category - that from which the sacred is set apart - but has its own structure and effects. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Ethnography, Intervention and Prevention: Public Health Strategies Grounded in Local Contexts Traci Abraham, Department of Anthropology, University of Connecticut, Storrs, USA Overview: A description of how ethnography can inform more efficacious intervention and prevention strategies. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 10	The Evaluation of Sustainable Development of a Metropolis: A Case Study of the Tabriz Metropolis Dr. Naficeh Marsousi, Geography Department, Payame Noor University, Tehran, Yousef Mohammadzadeh, Tabriz, Iran (Islamic Republic of) Overview: The aim of this research is to study the sustenance of development in Tabriz according to the quality characteristics of sustainable development Stream: Sociology and Geography	Spatial Production of Ankara as Capital City of Republican Turkey Dr. F. Aysin K. Turhanoglu, Department of Sociology, Anadolu University, Eskisehir, Turkey Overview: This presentation aims to analyse spatial production of Ankara as capital city of Republican Turkey depending on Lefebvre’s conceptualisation of 'production of space'. Stream: Sociology and Geography

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	10:05-10:35	10:40-11:10
Room 11	Women Rule? Exploring the Myth of “Women’s Land” Su-hsen Liu, The Department of Applied Foreign Language, Chung-yu Institute of Technology, Taipei, Taiwan Overview: Based on a Case Study of Xi Juan’s “Legend of Blooming Lotus” the paper explores the myth of “Women’s Rule” in Women’s Land. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender	Anthropological Perspectives on Female Identity: The Hindu Diaspora in Portugal Inês Lourenço, Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia/Science and Technology Foundation, CRIA - Centro em Rede de Investigação em Antropologia/Anthropological Network Research Center, Lisbon, Portugal Overview: My paper focus on the Hindu Diaspora in Portugal, particularly on the central role played by women in the construction of gender and religious identities. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender
Room 12	A Study of Acculturation and Adaptation of South Asians in Hong Kong Kareen NingLianChing Tonsing, Department of Social Work and Social Administration Faculty of Social Science, The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, Hong Kong Overview: This research aims to examine the experiences of acculturation and adaptation of South Asians in Hong Kong, based on Berry’s framework of acculturation research. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Censorship on Visual Arts and Its Political Implications in Contemporary Turkey: Four Case Studies from 2002 - 2009 Ozden Sahin, Department of Translation Studies, Okan University, Istanbul, Turkey Overview: A research on censorship on visual arts in Turkey during the rule of recent government. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 13	Scenarios Planning and Analysis of the Interactive Digital Media (IDM) Marketplace Yi Yang, Wee Kim Wee School of Communication & Information, Prof. Ravi S. Sharma, Wee Kim Wee School of Communication and Information, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore, Singapore Overview: This presentation will summarise our field research on developing scenarios for the IDM market - namely, online music, movies and games. Stream: Economics and Management	Teachers’ Pedagogical Decisions in the Writing Classroom: A Case Study at a Hong Kong University Dr Kok Kuen Tang, Centre for Applied English Studies, The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, China Overview: This paper presents a case study which explores the factors that impact on teachers’ decisions with regard to writing instruction. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 14	Universal Dignity, Justice and Accountability: Protection of Human Rights and How to Deal with the Violations Thereof Dr. Marietjie Oelofse, Department of History, University of the Free State., Bloemfontein, South Africa Overview: The paper will examine the different options considered by countries in dealing with a violent legacy as to explain why many transitional societies prefer to establish a truth commission. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	The Metaphorical Horizon: Between Facts and Fictions April Elisabeth Pierce, New York, Seth Taylor Garrison, John W. Draper Interdisciplinary Masters in Humanities and Social Thought, New York University, USA Overview: This paper will take an interdisciplinary look at the critical theory of metaphor, and compare it with cutting edge cognitive research. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
11:10-11:25	COFFEE BREAK

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	11:25-11:55	12:00-12:30
Room 1	Tourism: A Vehicle for Interdisciplinary Study Dr. Robert Mill, School of Hotel, Restaurant and Tourism Management Daniels College of Business, University of Denver, Denver, USA Overview: Tourism, the world's largest area of economic activity, is the perfect vehicle for studying the inter-relationships and interactions of the various social sciences. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Bridge over Troubled Mortars: Exploring Interdisciplinary Problems and Possibilities in English Language Teaching Dr Alexander Gilmore, Department of English Language, University of Tokyo, Tokyo, Japan Overview: Explores what should be (but often isn't) a thoroughly interdisciplinary practice - English Language Teaching - and examines some of the problems and possibilities for the profession Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 2		The Uncertain Quest for Urban Sustainability: The Micro-Local Experiment Dr. Robert Lancaster, Assistant Professor Department of Political Science, Kentucky State University, Frankfort, USA Overview: Centering on the scale of the 'built' environment, the shift in urban sustainability is now moving toward 'green' new construction models by seeking "localized" in-city experimentation. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 3		Instructional Strategies for Creating Purposeful Online Learning Activities and Discussions in Health Sciences Dr. Diane Hamilton-Hancock, Department of Health Sciences, Western Illinois University, Dr. Leanda Hemphill, Western Illinois University, Dr. Hoyet Hemphill, Department of Instructional Design and Technology, Western Illinois University, Macomb, USA Overview: Intended for health sciences educators who will learn to effectively function as online facilitators and content providers, implement strategies considering learner needs, create safe learning environments, and use online evaluations. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences
Room 4		Barbie, Jordan, Rachel, and the Great Paedophile Panic Prof. Nicholas James Miller Arnold, Institute of Cultural Studies, Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznan, Poland, Birmingham, UK Overview: A description and analysis, in performative terms, of the economic motivations behind the systematic infantilisation of neo-capitalist cultures Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	11:25-11:55	12:00-12:30
Room 5		Gender Identity and Social Changes: Psycho-Social Version of the Active-Audience Approach to Gender Identity Research Greta Gober, Centre for Gender Research, Warsaw School of Social Sciences and Humanities in Poland, Oslo, Norway Overview: The aim is to report upon original methodological strategy and will involve the application of psycho-social version of the active-audience approach to gender identity research. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender
Room 6	The Brazilian Citizenship Movement: From Political to Economical Citizenship Susana Mesquita Barbosa, Christina de Almeida Pedreira, Law School, Universidade Presbiteriana Mackenzie, São Paulo, Brazil Overview: The main goal of this research is to demonstrate an to analyze that political and social fundaments of this transition from political to economical citizenship Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Social-cultural Engagements with Landscape: Why do we Visit Locations? Dr. Anna Claydon, Centre of Mass Communications Research, University of Leicester, Leicester, UK Overview: This paper examines why we engage with 'abstract tourism'- visiting places we know little about and yet still find significance within Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 7	Knowledge Society among Teachers: Existence and Transcendence Khagendra Raj Dhakal, English Department Humanities and Social Sciences Faculty, Rajabhat Rajanagarindra University, Chacheongsao, Thailand Overview: This paper examines university teachers' space in knowledge society for their professional growth and development in Thai context. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Nollywood, Homosexuality, and the African Culture: An Unlikely Triple Heritage on the Africa Media Image Dr. Samuel K. Tesunbi, School of Information Technology and Communications, The American University of Nigeria Overview: The paper examines the role of Nollywood (Nigerian Cinema) and newspapers in brokering a dialogue on homosexuality. It insists that homosexuality is gaining prominence on Nigeria's Media. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 8	The Social Mobility of ISAN Labour Brokers Thanapauge Chamaratana, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, KhonKaen University, Dr. Dusadee Ayuwat, Department of Sociology and Anthropology Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Khon Kaen University, Moungh Khon Kaen, Thailand Overview: This qualitative research is focusing on social mobility of Thai labour brokers, who was international migrant labour, in frames of mobility format and practices of employment process. Stream: Sociology and Geography	The People Research and Development Method: A Useful Tool for Community Learning and Sustainable Resource Management in Thailand Dr. Kamonthip Kongprasertamorn, Urban Environment and Area Planning Division, Office of Natural Resources and Environmental Policy and Planning, Bangkok, Thailand Overview: People Research and Development is a method to empower the local people to protect their natural resources. The results are community plan, learning process, sustain management and self reliance. Stream: Sociology and Geography
Room 9	Physical Self-Concepts in Young Adults Dr Nicki Brake, Faculty of Education, Australian Catholic University, Sydney, Australia Overview: This paper investigates physical self-concepts in young adults by examining thoughts and feelings about the body in comparison with cognitive and social self-concepts. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Social Equality and Design: Professional Practice and User Participation Prof. Kin Wai Michael Siu, School of Design, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Hungghom, Hong Kong Overview: A good collaboration between professionals and users is the best way to achieve social equality. Applying user participation with professional facilitation can obtain high quality of designs. Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	11:25-11:55	12:00-12:30
Room 10	Integrated Socio-Ecological History: Could Looking at the Past Help Direct Society's Future? Dr. Sarah Cornell, QUEST Department of Earth Sciences, University of Bristol, Bristol, UK Overview: Early lessons on deep interdisciplinarity from IHOPE, an international global change research programme aiming to understand the socio-ecological dynamics of history. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Applied Social Sciences in Disaster and Development: Health, Education, and Ecology Dr. James A. Johnson, School of Health Sciences, Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, James Allen Johnson III, College of Social Sciences and Public Policy, Florida State University, Tallahassee, Joseph Adam Johnson, College of Education, Auburn University, Montgomery, USA Overview: An analysis of disaster and development challenges in the recent earthquakes in Haiti and Chile. Applied social sciences are utilized to measure health, education, and ecology, including policy recommendations. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences
Room 11	Understanding the Allure of Fashion: Exploring the Sphere of Emotions within Competitive Female Relations and Self-Fashioning Practice Karen Rafferty, School of Retail, The Dublin Institute of Technology, Dublin, Ireland Overview: Fashioning is presented as a practice which continues to facilitate identification and segregation amongst social collectivities, albeit through increasingly subtle modes. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender	Heart and Head: A Theoretical Explanation of the Meaning and Construction of Fatherhood for 'At Risk' Men in New Zealand Dr. Jeffrey Gage, Assoc Prof Ray Kirk, Prof Andrew Hornblow, Health Sciences Centre College of Education, University of Canterbury, Christchurch, New Zealand Overview: Although variation in the intentions and abilities of fathers will inevitably occur, this study emphasises the potential for at-risk fathers to make positive contributions to their families. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender
Room 12	Policy Analysts' Attitude towards Quantitative Studies: Empirical Evidence from a Large-n Cross-Sectional Survey Mathieu Ouimet, Pierre-Olivier Bédard, Department of Political Science, Laval University, Lamari Moktar, Jean Turgeon, École Nationale d'Administration Publique, Quebec City, Canada Overview: This paper explores policy analysts' preference towards quantitative, qualitative and reflexive/conceptual studies, and their determinants, using large-n cross-sectional data. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Research Methods for the Co-Production of Knowledge: An Example from the Wet Tropics of Queensland Dr. Leanne Claire Cullen-Unsworth, Sustainable Ecosystems, CSIRO Sustainable Ecosystems, Dr. Rosemary Hill, Dr. James R A Butler, Marilyn Wallace, Cairns, Australia Overview: Use of a cooperative research framework that explicitly embraces the co-production of knowledge to facilitate natural resource management: an example from the Wet Tropics World heritage Area, Australia Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods
Room 13	Determinants of Perceived Higher Education Conflict: Empirical Evidence of Employees of Pakistan Public Universities Uzma Mukhtar, Dr Sununta Siengthai, School of Management, Asian Institute of Technology, Bangkok, Thailand Overview: This study aims to test some basic assumptions of determinants of organizational conflicts in the context of higher education Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Building Professional Skills through Peer Group Assessment: A Case of a University-Industry Partnership Programme Dr Paula Hodgson, Faculty of Education, The University of Hong Kong, Lai Kuen Chan, Institute of Textiles and Clothing, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Hong Kong, Hong Kong Overview: This paper discusses a feasibility study of the learning experiences of an employee development partnership course run by a university in Hong Kong. Stream: Education and Social Welfare

THURS.		PARALLEL SESSIONS
	11:25-11:55		12:00-12:30
Room 14	Reflexivity & Intertextuality in Indian Television Advertising: Analysis of the Vodafone ZooZoo Campaign Prof. Manjula Sharma, Department of Humanities, Dr P J Philip, Department of Management, National Institute of Technology, Kurukshetra, Kurukshetra, India Overview: The authors present a critical analysis of a new movement in contemporary Indian television advertising. The analysis identifies key characteristics and the possible production of new popular culture artefacts. Stream: Media and Communications	Asymmetric Effects of Communication Media in Diverse and Homogenous Teams Dr. Anita Bhappu, Retailing & Consumer Sciences Norton School of Family & Consumer Sciences, University of Arizona, Tucson, USA Overview: This paper reports on data from two different studies which explored the effects of communication media in demographically diverse and homogenous teams performing creative decision-making tasks. Stream: Media and Communications
Room 15
GARDEN SESSION	The Energy Cultures Team
12:30-13:30	LUNCH
13:30-14:05	PLENARY SESSION - Juliet Mitchell , University of Cambridge, Cambridge, UK
14:10-14:40	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Room 1	Integrating Academic Service-Learning into Social Studies Teacher Preparation Programs: A Report on the First Year at Eastern Michigan University Dr. Robert Harold Duke, Department of History and Philosophy, Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, USA Overview: Report on required social studies methods course for secondary education teachers at Eastern Michigan University that incorporates Academic Service-Learning(AS-L) into our training and program assessment. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 2	Multiculturalism: Making the Connection and Connecting the Dots Dora Dean Clarke-Pine, School Psychology & Counseling Department, La Sierra University, Riverside, USA Overview: This is a paper presentation on simplifying the construct of multiculturalism and how that simplified construct can be applied to counseling and/or psychotherapeutic situations. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 3	Legal and Policy Responses to Social Media: Case of Hits or Misses? Jaspal Sadhu Singh, Department of Law and Criminology, Aberystwyth University, Aberystwyth University, Aberystwyth, UK Overview: An examination of the impact of social media on public and political discourses and the initiatives undertaken by governments in responding to the phenomenon which is seen as a threat. Stream: Media and Communications
Room 4	Big History: The Whole Story for First-Year Students Dr. Mojgan Behmand, Literature and Language, Prof. Arthur Kane Scott, History/Social Cultures Studies, Dominican University of California, San Rafael, United States Virgin Islands Overview: Big History/ The Whole Story/ The Universe Story: In a General Education revision at Dominican University of California, faculty from all disciplines come together to teach a foundational course. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 5	Personality and Finance: The Effects of Personality on Financial Attitudes and Behaviour Dr Christeen George, Joseph Davey, School of Psychology, University of Hertfordshire, Hatfield, UK Overview: This study aimed to establish the relationship personality has with financial attitudes and behaviours. Stream: Economics and Management

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:10-14:40
Room 6	A Study of Teachers' Perception about 'Inclusive Education' in UK Mainstream Primary Schools A. Q. M. Shafiul Azam, Policy and Operations Directorate of Primary Education, Ministry of Primary and Mass Education, Dhaka, Bangladesh, Dr Anthony Thorpe, School of Education, Roehampton University, London, UK Overview: This study examines teachers' perception about inclusive education involving two mainstream primary schools in the UK. The relationship between teachers' perception of inclusive education and its implication was explored. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 7	Factors Contributing to Chinese Children Changing from Aggressive Victims into Reactive Aggressors Xiang Li, Department of Applied Social Studies, City University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, Hong Kong Overview: This study attempts to seek for the behavioral transition of bullying in early adolescence, especially exploring indicators which could be responsible for the transition from aggressive victims into reactive aggressors. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 8	Mahathirism and Human Rights in Malaysia Dr. Mohd Azizuddin Mohd Sani, College of Law, Government and International Studies, University Utara Malaysia, Sintok, Malaysia Overview: This paper is about Mahathirism or Mahathir Mohamad's, the fourth Prime Minister of Malaysia, views on human rights. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 9	Academic Dependency of Intellectual Labor: The Case of Social Sciences in Pakistan Imran Sabir, Groupe d'Etudes des Méthodes de l'Analyse Sociologique, Université de Paris IV-Sorbonne, Abida Sabir, UFR des Sciences Sociales et des Humanités, Université de Saint Quentin-en-Yvelines, Versailles, Paris, France Overview: This paper explores the dismal state of social sciences and subsequent academic dependency of intellectual labour in Pakistan. Stream: Sociology and Geography
Room 10	A New, Global Interest in Religion and Its Implications for Universities Dr. Krzysztof Batorowicz, Multicultural Centre, The University of Southern Queensland, Toowoomba, Australia Overview: In this century, an interest in religion within politics, international relations and social debates has been noted. The paper analyses this phenomenon and its implications for universities. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities
Room 11	The Culture of Criminal Justice and the Limits of Criminal Law: Wrongful Convictions, Legal Rules and Social Theory Dr. Diana Young, Department of Law, Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada Overview: The problems associated with wrongful convictions may resist resolution through law reform, as the law itself is best understood as a site of power among many other sites. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 12	The Construction of a National Identity and the 'Other' by the Two Communities in Conflict: Greek Cypriots versus Turkish Cypriots Melek Muderrisgil, Department of Psychology, University of Surrey, Guildford, UK Overview: This paper aims to contribute to the understanding of national identity, how it is constructed in discourse, and how discourse is used to legitimise mobilising support for particular political actions. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences
Room 13	Accountants and Human Rights Susan Wild, Accounting and Information Systems, University of Canterbury, Christchurch, Prof. Edwin Mares, School of History, Philosophy, Political Science and International Relations, Victoria University of Wellington, Wellington, New Zealand Overview: This paper argues for extending codes of ethics of professional accounting organizations to include responsibilities for human rights. Stream: Economics and Management

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:10-14:40
Room 14	Evaluation of Information Technology Outsourcing in Terms of Financial Motivation Serdar Yarlikas, Department of Information Systems Informatics Institute, Middle East Technical University, Ankara, Turkey Overview: In this study, Information Technology (IT) outsourcing concept is evaluated and investigated in terms of financial motivation. The relations between IT outsourcing success measures and financial drivers are also investigated. Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences
Room 15
14:40-14:55	COFFEE BREAK

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10
Room 1	The Failure of the Mental Health Care System: From the Perspective of the Supporting Family Clem M. Martini, Department of Drama, University of Calgary, Calgary, Canada Overview: Families caring for individuals with mental illness tend to feel isolated and abandoned. They lack the assistance, guidance, and training required to respond to the kinds of situations they encounter. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Social Exclusion and Self-esteem: The Impact of the Identity – Bureaucracy Nexus on Employed People Experiencing Homelessness Dr. Marion E. Jones, Department of Economics, Faculty of Arts, University of Regina, Regina, Dr. John R. Graham, Micheal Shier, Faculty of Social Work, University of Calgary, Calgary, Canada Overview: Multiple factors and perspectives should be considered when promoting pathways from homelessness. We present issues about documentation and how this maintains social exclusion and impacts self-esteem. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Instilling the Passion for Science in the Classroom Sharon Macpherson, Graduate Division of Educational Research Faculty of Education, University of Calgary, Calgary, Canada Overview: An exploration around the importance of engaging students in the science classroom. Stream: Education and Social Welfare

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10
Room 2	Diversity in Group Work: Interdisciplinary Perspectives Dr. William Pelech, Social Work, University of Calgary, Calgary, Canada Overview: This paper describes an inquiry set out to learn how practitioners from pastoral counseling, psychology and social work conceptualize and use diversity in their groups. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	The Evaluation of a Holistic Case Mangement Intervention Program for Low-income Families of K-6 Grade Children: Evaluation of the Butler County Success Program (BCSP) Dr. Kevin Bush, Department of Family Studies and Social Work School of Education, Health, and Society, Dr Doris Bergen, Educational Psychology School of Education, Health, and Society, Miami University, Oxford, USA Overview: The Butler County Success Program is a child/family intervention program for low-income families of K-6 graders. Findings include increases in positive parenting, academic achievement, parent-teacher relations and access to resources Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Psychological Well-being in Information Technology Professionals Prof. Mudassir Khan, Community Medicine (Public Health), Mysore Medical College & Research Institute, MYSORE, Dr. Himanshu Sharma, Dr. Aman Kumar, Community Medicine, Mysore Medical College, Mysore, India Overview: This research investigated the psychological well-being of information technology professionals. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Personal Value during the Transition from Dictatorship to Democracy in Chile: Value Changes during Political Transitions Dr. Lucio Rehbein, Dr. Ricardo Pérez-Luco, Department of Psychology, Dra. María Elena González, Departamento de Psicología, Universidad de La Frontera, Temuco, Chile Overview: The present study compared the personal values profile from three cohorts of 12th grade students (a total of 1100), observed in three moments along an 11-year period (1988, 1993, 1999). Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10
Room 3	The Future Prospects of Webcasting Recognition Muhammad Abrar, The School of Law, Glasgow, UK Overview: This paper discusses webcasting development and recognition. Stream: Media and Communications	Deconstruction of t in the Views of Derrida and Feyerabend: The Nature of Knowledge Possibility and Necessity of Interdisciplinary Studies in Higher Education Saeid Zarghami, Department of Education, Tarbiat Moallem University, Tehran, Iran (Islamic Republic of) Overview: In this study, the nature of knowledge in Derrida's views and Feyerabend's thoughts have been considered and compared to analyze the possibility and necessity of interdisciplinary studies in higher education Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Evaluating Online Health Science Discussions for Interactivity and Level of Critical Thinking Dr. Leanda Hemphill, Department of Instructional Design and Technology, Western Illinois Universtiy, Dr. Diane Hamilton-Hancock, Department of Health Sciences, Dr. Hoyet Hemphill, Department of Instructional Design and Technology, Western Illinois University, Macomb, USA Overview: Online discussions were used to engage graduate students in meaningful dialogue about health education issues. Student posts were evaluated for levels of critical thinking and interactivity. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences	Lifestyles and Recycling in Densely Populated Cities: A Case Study of Social Changes and Green Design in Hong Kong Chi Hang Lo, Prof. Kin Wai Michael Siu, School of Design, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Hungghom, Hong Kong Overview: This paper presents and discusses a case study of social changes and green design. It aims to identify the relationship between lifestyle and recycling. Stream: Natural, Environmental and Health Sciences
Room 4		Utilizing Collaborative Problem Solving to Increase the Educational Success of At-Risk Youth Antoinette M. Knecht, Learning Collaborative University Degree Programs Interdisciplinary & Special Programs, University of Toledo, Toledo, USA Overview: A pilot project examining the implementation of a Collaborative Problem Solving process to treat at-risk youth. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Quality of Life of Older Adults: Perceptions of Youth Sreejata Mitra, MHSc Program in Family Resource Management (Specialization in Interior Designing), Dr. Bishnupriya Dasgupta, Family Resource Management, SNTD Women's University, Mumbai, India Overview: The main aim of this study was to investigate the attitudes of youth towards older adults and ascertain their perception about the quality of life of older adults. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	The Role of Mobility on Technology Acceptance: Using the Mobile Phone as an Example Nadine Witt, Project "Humic" Human Technology Centre (HumTec), Prof. Heather Hofmeister, Gender and Life Course Research, RWTH Aachen University, Aachen, Germany Overview: Analysis of acceptance of mobile communication systems and the reasons people have to accept or reject this technology. Identification of single influencing indicators for acceptance or non-acceptance. Stream: Technology and Applied Sciences

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10
Room 5	Behavior Of External Debt: Evidence From Nineteen Asian Countries Dr. Evan Lau, Department of Economics, Universiti Malaysia Sarawak, Siti Nur Zahara Hamzah, Jenny Lai, Kota Samarahan, Malaysia Overview: The paper examine the behavior of external debt in nineteen Asian countries. Stream: Economics and Management	Indian Corporate Women and Worklife Balance Dr Anjali Chauhan, Department of Anthropology, University of Lucknow, Lucknow, India Overview: An emperical study descibing the hurdles faced by Indian women while trying to strike a balance between her home and workplace and her coping styles. Stream: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Gender	Statutory Child Welfare Practice: Working at the Nexus of Risk Dr. Tony Stanley, Childrens Social Care, London, UK Overview: This paper is arguing for a more critical engagement with risk by social workers and their supervisors, with colleagues external to statutory child welfare, and, importantly, with families and children. Stream: Sociology and Geography	Neighbourhood Analysis Based on Complex Data Analysis of the German Socio-Economic Panel Study Dominik P.H. Kalisch, Computer Science in Architecture, Bauhaus-University Weimar, Weimar, Germany, Vincent David, ESAM, NICO, Northwestern University, Evanston, USA Overview: A singular value decomposition approach which decomposes the survey data of the socio-economic panel to identify typical neighbourhoods in Germany Stream: Sociology and Geography
Room 6	Incorporating Arabic Words in the Teaching of English: Students' Perspectives Dr. Khairiah Othman, English Language Division Centre for Languages and Pre-University Development, Dr Maskanah Mohammad Lotfie, Department of English Language and Literature, International Islamic University Malaysia, Gombak, Malaysia Overview: The paper aims to highlight the need to incorporate Islamic vocabulary in the teaching of English to Muslim students. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	A Comparative Study of "Educational Leadership & Administration" MA Programs in USA and Turkey Köksal Banoğlu, Halit Armay High School, Istanbul, Turkey Overview: This study aims to investigate the "Educational Leadership and Administration" master of arts programs in USA and Turkish universities in terms of their courses and credits. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Utah Educators Network: A Wealth of Tools at Your Fingertips Dr Sandie Waters, Dr Suzy Cox, Elementary Education, Utah Valley University, Orem, USA Overview: The USOE and The Utah System of Higher Education has partnered to create uen.org. This website is open to educators and provides many resources to be used in the classroom. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Social Support Mechanisms of the Elderly: Insights from the British Household Panel Survey Dr. Robert Raeside, Employment Research Institute, Edinburgh Napier University, Edinburgh, UK, Dr. Kaberi Gayen, Department of Mass Communication and Journalism, University of Dhaka, Dhaka, Bangladesh Overview: In this paper the situation of those over 65 years is examined to understand the effect of change in household composition to more nuclear dwelling, Stream: Education and Social Welfare

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10
Room 7	Learning to Study and Learning for Life: Integrating Learning Skills in a University Foundation Year Social Science Curriculum Jonathan Cope, Prof. Peter Haycock, Catherine Gillions, Foundation Year Centre, Keele University, Stoke-on-Trent, UK Overview: A workshop exploring the social and pedagogical connections between the provision and development of learning skills and life skills in an interdisciplinary social science foundation year programme Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Sub-Health on Self Awareness and Quality of Life among Community Women: Living with Stress Urinary Incontinence Dr. Alice Kar Yan Wong, School of Nursing, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Hong Kong Overview: This paper uses King's Health Questionnaire and I-QoL to study the impact of Urinary Incontinence (UI) on the quality of life among community women in Hong Kong. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Talent Retention of Graduate Interns in a South African Information, Communication and Technology Company Carva Pop, Emmerentia Nicolene Barkhuizen, Department of Human Resource Management, University of Pretoria, Johannesburg, South Africa Overview: This research reports on a graduate internship programme's contribution to the retention of graduate interns in a South African Information, Communication and Technology Company Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 8	Pay Equity for Women: Why Does the United States Lag So Far Behind Other Countries? Dr. Catherine C. Reese, Department of Political Science, Dr. Barbara Warner, Political Science Department, Arkansas State University, Jonesboro, USA Overview: The United States lags behind many other countries in pay equity for women. The authors survey legislators, women's groups and business leaders as to why they think this is so. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Interdisciplinary Education on Contentious Policy Problems: Preparing Future Professionals to Address Contentious Problems in Science and Technology Policy through Interdisciplinary, Problem Based Learning Dr. Roberta Berry, School of Public Policy, Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, USA Overview: Report on research in interdisciplinary, problem based learning to prepare future professionals in policy, law, philosophy, science, and engineering to address contentious policy problems in science and technology. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	The Survival of the Fittest Ideas of Natural Law Theory in Spanish Krausism Philosophy Delia Maria Manzanero, Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, Oxford, UK Overview: This paper contains a brief dissertation about the historical development of the connection between Law and Morality and explains how the Krausist philosophy of law is interwoven into this context. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Do Corrupt Officials Pay? Dr Rimawan Pradiptyo, Faculty of Economics and Business, Universitas Gadjah Mada, Yogyakarta, Indonesia Overview: This paper assess court decisions for tackling corruption in Indonesia. We found that prosecutors and judges tend to be in favour to large and huge scale defendants than other defendants. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10
Room 9	Developing a Pedagogy of Refugee Inclusiveness in Primary and Secondary Education Sarah Ritter, Kelley MoneyMaker, Boise, USA Overview: A dialectical workshop centered on creating refugee inclusive education practices and policies, its generative themes are derived from the presenter's experience educating refugee students. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	The Reasons for Encouraging or Inhibiting Students' Active Participation in Asynchronous Online Discussion: Three Cases from Malaysia Mdm Siew Woei Ling, Dr. Ah Choo Koo, Faculty of Creative Multimedia, Multimedia University, Cyberjaya, Cho Chuan Ong, Information Services, University of Nottingham (Malaysia Campus), Semenyih, Malaysia Overview: A discussion board has its potential to allow the construction of knowledge through active participation from the students. Unfortunately it has received unsatisfactory number of quality responses from the students. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	The Black American Male and Education John Hicks, Southside Virginia Community College, Virginia State University, Petersburg, USA Overview: Challenges that face the African-American male in education and what can be done to try to improve their abilities. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
Room 10	The Transcontextualization of Sustainable Development: A Mining Exploration Mileu of Alangan Mangyans Prof. Dindo Cafe, Behavioral Sciences Department, De La Salle University, Manila, Philippines Overview: Although myriad of factors may impinge on the evolution of the perspectives among indigenous peoples, the discourse of globalization is a crucial force in reconstructing the concept of sustainable development. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Discourse Unity: The Allegory of Life on the Edge of Lived Space Asst. Prof. Dr. Nadide Karkiner, Department of Sociology, Anadolu University, Eskisehir, Turkey Overview: Article is about the formation of a discourse unity of archeology, architecture and sociology about the establishment of an 'Archeology Park' in Turkey. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Virtual Reality as a Means for Preserving Digital Heritage: Masjid Jamek Dr Yan Peng Lim, Faculty of Creative Multimedia, Multimedia University, Cyberjaya, Malaysia Overview: Exposure to and discussion of cultural heritage has become more common and wider than ever before in our society. Stream: Anthropology, Archaeology, Cultural Studies and Humanities	Avoiding Canned Statistics in a Contoured, Interdependent World: Why Statistical Practitioners Should Not Be Mathematics Shy Adam Packer, School of Politics and International Relations, Australian National University, Canberra, Australia Overview: This paper tests the confirmatory power of typical regression analysis used in quantitative social sciences when it is deployed to identify causal relationships in dynamic systems encountered in physics. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10
Room 11	The Gaping Holes in the African Peer Review Process: The APRM Process: Quo Vadis? Prof. Ernest Peprah Ababio, Department of Public Management And Administration, North-West University, Vanderbijlpark, South Africa Overview: The African Peer Review Mechanism is a strategic institution designed to promote public service reform in Africa. Its structural-functioning potential is hampered by, amongst others, its policy of voluntary membership Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Paternalism in Welfare Policy Kemran Mestan, Institute for Social Research, Swinburne University of Technology, Melbourne, Australia Overview: Paternalism will be identified as an important rationale behind welfare policies, and this rationale will be critiqued through exposing some implications on citizenship. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Comparison of the Government Role in the Provision of Affordable Housing in China and Sweden: Lessons for Hong Kong Connie Rong Tang, Department of Real Estate and Construction, The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, China Overview: This paper compares government role in provision of affordable housing in China (market socialism system) and Sweden (social democracy system), and discuss lessons for Hong Kong (liberal interventionist system). Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law	Communal Interest and the Security of Private Contract in China: A Case Study Prof. Bing Ling, Faculty of Law, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, China Overview: A case study shows how communal interest abridges legal protection of private contract in China and questions moral and economic underpinning of contract law. Stream: Politics, Public Policy and Law
Room 12		Consumer Experiencing: Assessing and Designing Socially Valid Behaviour Interventions Dr. Robert Leclerc, School of Psychology, University of Ottawa, Ottawa, B.Soc.Sc Terri Neate, Positive Progress Behaviour Health Services, Chelsea, Canada Overview: Workshop participants will learn how to incorporate the consumers' subjective experiencing into a functional behaviour assessment and design socially valid, ethically sound behaviour intervention and prevention programs. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences	Impacting Quality of Life at a Homeless Shelter: Measuring the Effectiveness of Say It Straight™ Dr. Marcy Haag, College of Public Affairs and Community Service, Dr. Linda Holloway, Rehabilitation, Social Work & Addictions, University of North Texas, Denton, Dr. Tom Wood, Chemical Dependency Intensive Outpatient Program, Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital of Dallas, Dallas, USA Overview: This study examined the impact of Say It Straight™, an evidence-based communication skills program, on Quality of Life at a homeless shelter in Dallas, TX, USA. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioral Sciences

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10
Room 13	Impact of Visual Culture on Identity: Fractalization of Reality Mehmet Evren Eken, MSc Student in Sociology at the Hacettepe University, Turkey and MA Student in Geopolitics&Grand Strategy at the University of Sussex, the UK, University of Hacettepe, University of Sussex, London, UK Overview: The aim of the paper is to reset forth the four phases of simulacrum theory of J.Baudrillard through visual cultural themes and to stress the importance of visuality on identity. Stream: Media and Communications	Economic and Social Indicators of Poverty in the Poorest Province of the Philippines Dr. Bernadette Gavino-Gumba, Department of Social Sciences and Institute of Politics, Ateneo de Naga University, Naga City, Philippines Overview: This study analyzed rural poverty and determined the correlation between economic and political indicators of poverty in twenty-one municipalities of Masbate, the poorest province in the Philippines. Stream: Economics and Management	The Added Value of Social Enterprise Brigita Baltaca, Faculty of Economics and Management Department of Public Administration, University of Latvia, Riga, Latvia Overview: This paper is concerned with developing a framework which allows social entrepreneurship to be analyzed through the categories of participation, user involvement, and community benefit. Stream: Economics and Management	Learning by Sharing: Does It Improve Graduates' Preparation for the Working World? Dr Orit Haller-Hayon, Management Social Psychology Education, Petach Tikva, Israel Overview: This research explored a new learning by sharing model between industry and academia, for improving the graduates' preparation to the working world. Stream: Economics and Management
Room 14	The Factors that Impede the Effectiveness of the Cascade Model of Training on Adult Basic Education and Training Educators Mpho Dichaba, Educational Studies, Pretoria, Dr. Velisiwe Gasa, Socio-Education, University of South Africa, South Africa Overview: The study looks at the flaws of the Cascade Model of Training. Stream: Education and Social Welfare	Covering the Country: After-Hour Emergency Child Protection Social Work Services Dr. Sue Hanna, Social Work Division, School of Health Sciences and Social Care, Brunel University, London, UK Overview: Qualitative research conducted with social workers reveals the challenges of providing after hours emergency child protection services. The work shares many characteristics with that conducted by other emergency control centers. Stream: Education and Social Welfare		Taylor Rules and Exchange Rate Modeling Ylding Wan, School of Economics, University of East Anglia, Norwich, UK Overview: The paper is trying to explore the correlation between monetary policy and out-of-sample exchange rate forecasting. Stream: Economics and Management

THURS.	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	14:55-15:25	15:30-16:00	16:05-16:35	16:40-17:10
Room 15	Reformation Places and the Use of Senses in Their Design: Seclusion Spaces and Heightened Sensory Awareness Ms Eleni Tracada, School of Technology Faculty of Arts, Design and Technology, University of Derby, Derby, UK Overview: The Sollicciano Prison: A thoughtful design with participation of senses as a solution to problems caused by seclusion with intent to revitalize human beings' broken lives and damned identities. Stream: Psychology, Cognitive Science and the Behavioural Sciences	Integrating Participatory and Analytical Techniques to Evaluate Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Landscape Futures: Methodology Development Dr. Maria Nijnik, Socio-Economic Group, The Macaulay Land Use Research Institute, Aberdeen, UK Overview: Interdisciplinary methods, combining participatory and analytical techniques are presented. Examples from several European Commission funded projects addressing the content and future of landscapes are discussed. Stream: Research Methodologies, Quantitative and Qualitative Methods	Participatory Administrative Reform in South Eastern European Schools: Dream or Reality? Sinziana - Elena Poiana, Romanian Academic Society, Bucharest, Romania Overview: Drawing on statistical data, this paper looks at the impact of decentralization reforms in eight South Eastern European countries on the level of parental participation in school management. Stream: Education and Social Welfare
GARDEN SESSION	Juliet Mitchell
17:15-17:45	CONFERENCE CLOSING - Bill Cope, Common Ground Publishing, USA

