Quotes

- ‘Service user and carer involvement brings something that you cannot learn in a text book, that you cannot learn in a lecture, you learn from the person who has dealt with it day in day out, real people, with real situations in real life’(Student).
- ‘Being involved helped me learn about myself, put things in perspective , gave me a sense of purpose and belonging, has enhanced my life and given me more than I could have ever imagined’(Service user).

- Critical reflection and self- appraisal has raised my consciousness and enabled me to better understand why I have adopted the approaches I have in my work as an academic, practitioner and on a personal basis (Academic).

Conclusion

- Own Agency
 - Authenticity
 - Reality
 - Lived Experience
- It is how we use this in what we do that can make the difference
