The work is always personal and through exploring my life I gain a strong sense of realisation and an acceptance of who I am. "What art really is, is acceptance, first you accept yourself and eventually you accept others"<sup>23</sup> (Jeff Koons, Tate Channel, 2009)

My work is contemporary through its subtleties, every yarn I choose and every structure I weave is key to the concept of the piece. The tiniest of details in my work could mean something incredibly sentimental but only I know it.
