Conference Chair

Welcome

XML World 2002 is about fusion, the bringing together of different threads in the story of modern business applications - personalized content, wireless mobility, enterprise portals and instantaneous business transactions - for the benefit of all involved. Come to think of it, the same can be said about the role of XML in the advancement of the Web itself. In fact, the same can also be said of this year's venue, New Orleans, although in a slightly different light. So please, come and join the mix.

Why You Should Be There !

XML World 2002 is a conference and exposition that, over the past five years, has brought together developers, implementers, customers and vendors from across the globe to explore the XML phenomenon.

This event has consistently sought a balance between business and technology, development and implementation, hype and reality.

Monday, September 23 - Conference Day 1 & Tutorials

8:30 a.m. - 10:15 a.m.	Opening Session - XML World 2002 will open with a series of presentations by the conference chairs - each focusing on the most important advances in their respective domains and on the emerging trends that will warrant attention over the next year. The conference chairs will work together to demonstrate how the different topics being showcased in their tracks all point toward the pervasive impact of XML across the technology and business markets.
