Discussion

Life experience

▸ "I was brought up a Catholic, errr , wasn't
Until I sort of became a free thinker as I got older and began to question rather than it just being errr force fed…. (Nick: CPN RAID)

" My family were devout Methodists. My mother died when I was 9 and the last place she when before she went into hospital was bloody chapel event though she was dying at that point. It was something she had to do" (Joe)

"Your family are massive in finding meaning and purpose in your life" (Isabel: Forensic inpatient)

Professional attidudes

- "You get a vibe about what's acceptable and what's not and the different ways that people work" (Ann: Insight team)
- Some (nurses) are more forthright than others in dismissing ideas that some people (other nurses) might have (Brendan: Substance misuse)
- "My experience of colleague and mandatory training is that spirituality is presented almost wholesale as religion (Ben: CPN adult)

What is spirituality?

- "The obvious is religion but I think it's more to do with your ethos or philosophy of life" (Harry: AOT)

- "Spirituality to me is like something that everyone carries with them and individual and unique to the sort of person they are" (Freya: Adult acute inpatient)

- "I would say it's anything that a person finds meaningful... I don't think I could define it any more than that" (Isabel: Secure care)

- "In my experience it means different things to different people. It's not just a religious thing"

Impact on service user

- "It's the worst place ever. Some of the things we are made to do by the organisation, by society. Everyday we are expected to restrain, force medication, section people. It's horrific" "Half the time we are just experimenting on people. How spiritual is that?" (Emma: Community Therapy)
- If someone needs time to go to the multi-faith room to reflect or whatever it's like I'm sorry we don't have enough staff." (Dawn: Secure care)
- "How are we going to squeeze this round peg n to the square hole of services when it's not what she values, it's not how she connects with people" (Ann: Insight Team)
