The University OA policy says that the 'author accepted version' of an article should be placed in the Repository. Has this version been typeset by the publisher?

The most cost effective way of making an article open access is to place it in the University Repository - true or false?

If you are publishing your OA article via the Green Route, will you need to pay Article Processing Charges?

Articles should be submitted to the Repository within 2 months of acceptance for publication - true or false?

The University OA policy says that the 'author accepted version' of an article should be placed in the Repository. Has this version been through peer review and editors' comments?

Articles with a publisher embargo can't be submitted for the REF - true or false?

Are academics at the University of Huddersfield expected to pay their Article Processing Charges?

HEFCE has said that only Open Access publications will be considered in the next REF - true or false?

True

No

False - you have 3 months.

No - placing your research in an Open Access Repository is free.

False

Yes

True

No - if it is RCUK funded research, funding is available.

Setting up an ORCID ID
and a Google Scholar profile will enable you to gather all your publications in one place and track your citations -
true or false?

Most research funders do not like grant holders to make their publications Open Access -
true or false?

The University prefers
researchers to publish their work using the Gold Open Access route -
true or false?

Open Access helps to maximise the use of public funds spent on research -
true or false?

Open Access journals
aren't peer reviewed -
true or false?

Open Access makes it easier to publicise your work via social media -
true or false?

Some journals offer
a mix of Open Access and subscription content -
true or false?

Green Open Access
can be expensive -
true or false?

False

True

True

False - the University
supports both Gold and Green Open Access

True

False - many OA journals
are peer reviewed

False - Green Open Access is free for researchers

True

Items added to the Repository might have an embargo period set by the publisher - true or false?

Items added to the Repository can be found when using search engines - true or false?

Items that I add to the Repository will be listed on my Staff Profile - true or false?

True

True

True