

The University OA policy says that the ‘author accepted version’ of an article should be placed in the Repository.
Has this version been typeset by the publisher?

No

If you are publishing your OA article via the Green Route, will you need to pay Article Processing Charges?

No - placing your research in an Open Access Repository is free.

The University OA policy
says that the ‘author accepted
version’ of an article should be placed in the Repository.

Has this version been through peer review and editors’ comments?

Yes

Are academics at the University of Huddersfield expected to pay their Article Processing Charges?

No - if it is RCUK funded research, funding is available.

The most cost effective way of making an article open access is to place it in the University Repository - true or false?

True

Articles should be submitted to the Repository within 2 months of acceptance
for publication -
true or false?

False - you have 3 months.

Articles with a publisher embargo can't be submitted for the REF -
true or false?

False

HEFCE has said that only Open Access publications will be considered in the next REF -
true or false?

True

Setting up an ORCID ID and a Google Scholar profile will enable you to gather all your publications in one place and track your citations -
true or false?

True

The University prefers researchers to publish their work using the Gold Open Access route -
true or false?

False - the University supports both Gold and Green Open Access

Open Access journals aren't peer reviewed -
true or false?

False - many OA journals are peer reviewed

Some journals offer a mix of Open Access and subscription content -
true or false?

True

Most research funders do not like grant holders to make their publications Open Access -
true or false?

False

Open Access helps to maximise the use of public funds spent on research -
true or false?

True

Open Access helps make it easier to publicise your work via social media -
true or false?

True

Green Open Access can be expensive -
true or false?

False - Green Open Access is free for researchers

Items added to the Repository might have an embargo period set by the publisher -
true or false?

True

Items added to the Repository can be found when using search engines -
true or false?

True

Items that I add to the Repository will be listed on my Staff Profile -
true or false?

True